Taxes Going Up? Time to Cut Back!

AN EDITORIAL

Don't look now, but that ol' devil tax time is rolling around again.

Or perhaps we should say, you'd better look now, if you hope to keep your tax rate under control.

The various units of the county government are now "talking over" their budget needs, and each is carefully formulating its needs and budgetary requirements for the coming year.

It is the total of the budgets of the individual departments which will make up your basic tax rate.

And of course, on top of this tax rate you will have the added cost of the individual districts which serve you, such as Contra Costa Sanitary District, the school districts, fire districts, recreation districts, flood control, mosquito abatement, cemetery and so on.

We predict that this will be the highest tax rate that residents have ever faced.

What can we do about this situation?

First, we're not criticizing anybody. However, we urge strongly that each and every governmental department and governmental subdivision take extreme caution in preparing their budgets.

We're suggesting that each district slash everything from the budget that can possibly be cut.

The various departments and districts might be compared to a suburban family which must face a decision as to whether or not it can afford a new car.

The family looks at its needs and income, and if it cannot afford a new car this year, it simply doesn't get one.

Secondly, we urge civic organizations and individuals to attend budget hearing meetings in order to understand the needs and requirements of those boards which are providing badly needed services.

It is also axiomatic that if we, as residents, want services we will have to pay for them. Again it must be a matter of decision as to what we want and what we can afford.

The only people who are in a position to make the decision are the members of the various boards and departments, and generally, they are only too willing to do what the people—you and I—want.

They cannot know what you want unless you tell them.

Attend budget hearings and urge your representatives to cut back wherever possible.

It's going to be bad enough as it is.

3 EBMUD Director Terms End in '57; Election Nov. 6

Terms for three members of the East Bay Municipal Utility District will terminate January 3, 1957, according to C. P. Tanner, director of customer relations of EBMUD. Opening date for filing is August 28, closing date, September 27.

The present board is composed of Louis J. Breuner, president; A. C. Carrington, vice-president; William D. McNevin, Thomas S. Neilson and G. Howard Robinson.

Terms of Carrington, McNevin and Robinson expire in January. The board is composed of five civic leaders, each residing in one of the five wards, and elected for a four year term. The terms of Breuner and Neilson end in January, 1959.

Terms are staggered with members elected at a biennial general election and three at the following general election.

To nominate a candidate, his nomination papers must be circulated within the district each candidate's nomination papers must be signed either by two percent of the voters within the district or by 500 voters, but never by more than 650 voters within the district," said Tanner.

McNevin, 1236 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, resides in Ward I which is roughly bounded by Richmond and the western portion of Berkeley, the cities of Albany, El Cerrito and San Pablo, Kensington, San Pablo Reservoir, northern Orinda, plus and the Happy Valley area in Lafayette.

Neilson, 160 Arlington Avenue, Berkeley, nominated from Ward

II which is bounded by Berkeley and including Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Sarnap and Moraga, will be in office until 1959.

Directors of the district receive $20 per board meeting. The total pay they may receive is $40 per month. The board is the legislative body of the district and determines all questions of policy.

James Stokes Bound Over on Assault Charge

James B. Stokes was held to answer to Superior Court on charges of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder at his preliminary hearing held at 2 p.m. on Monday in Judge Horace Van Gordon's Judicial District Court.

Stokes bail remained fixed at $3000. He was represented by Attorney Thomas Meehan on charges filed by Albert E. Davies, father of Edward Davies, 21, of Alamo who is in Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek with a frontal skull fracture, caused, police say, when he was hit by a shovel wielded by Stokes.

Sheriff's deputies said Stokes struck Davies with the edge of a work shovel in an argument over a dented lunch bucket, which Davies accidentally damaged with a tractor while working on a home construction job near Danville last week.

The mass meetings will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in five Central Contra Costa County communities — Danville, Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek — to explain to voters details of the $9,900,000 Sewer Bond issue they will be asked to decide August 7.

A similar mass meeting at Moraga will be incorporated with the regular meeting of the Moraga Valley Community Club at Moraga School tonight at 8:30 p.m.

According to Ivan Gilman of Pleasant Hill, chairman of the committee for Sewers Speakers' Bureau, a team of three speakers will appear at each of the mass meetings, including technical experts capable of answering specific questions about present and future functions of the sewage disposal system and the present urgent need for the bond issue. The mass meetings will be preceded by a motorcade touring the central county during the Monday morning and afternoon.

The locations of the meetings, all held at 8 p.m. and the speakers who will explain the issue to voters are as follows:

Danville—Green Valley School, Diabolo Road, speakers: Irving C. Roemer, president, Central Contra Costa Sanitary District; Eugene Bulin, chief operator, treatment plant, Central Contra Costa Sanitary District; Mrs. Noble Morris, business manager, Southern Public Utility District.

Lafayette, Acalanes High School, 1200 Pleasant Hill Road, speakers: R. W. Fisher Jr., member Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board of Directors;

INCORPORATION is a big question in Orinda, and staunch behind the move to incorporate are these members of the Incorporation Petition Committee and petition signers. ## District Governor Sewer District Filing Period To Visit Rotary Opens, Election Sept. 17

The Rotary Club of Orinda will be host next Wednesday to Charles E. Glick, Governor of the 157 District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the 50 Rotary Clubs in the central part of Northern California.

He will address the local club and confer with President Ramsey Underwood, Secretary Harold C. Bryant, and committee chairman on Rotary administration and service activities.

Glick is a partner in B. E. Glick & Sons in Corning, California, and is a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Corning.

He is the recipient of the Silver Beaver Award of the Boy Scouts of America and has been a member of the Rotary Club in Corning since 1933. He was elected as a District Governor of Rotary International for the 1956-57 fiscal year at Rotary's 47th Annual Convention in Philadelphia last June.

"Wherever Rotary Clubs are located," President Underwood asserted in discussing the Governor's visit, "their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Orinda because they are based on the same general objectives — developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world."

Claude McPhee, assistant district manager, Central Contra Costa Sanitary District; Charles Hahn, Relix Valley.

Orinda, Orinda Union School, 26 Orinda Highway, speakers: Ernest I. Spiegel, member Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board of Directors; Frank W. Curtis, 89 Moraga Highway, Orinda; Gene Estes, Sleepy Hollow.

Pleasant Hill, Fair Oaks School, 2400 Lisa Lane, Pleasant Hill, speakers: Thomas Shreve, president, Pleasant Hill Civic Council; Gerry A. Horstkotte Jr., District Manager, Central Contra Costa Sanitary District; Frank W. Salfingere, member Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board of Directors.

Walnut Creek, Las Lomas High School, 1460 South Main Street, speakers: Lawrence I. Pinard, manager, Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce; Richard J. Mitchell, member Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board of Directors; C. Terence Ring, Attorney-at-Law, Walnut Creek.

At the Moraga meeting, the speakers will be Capt. Harold R. Parker, Las Trampas Creek Road Moraga; Frank W. Curtis, Orinda; and Gerry A. Horstkotte Jr., District Manager of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

Mayor E. C. (Ted) Counter of Walnut Creek and Shreve, co-chairmen of the Committee for Sewers, urged all residents of Central Contra Costa County to attend one of the mass meetings to learn the truth about the issue they will decide on August 7.

"We cannot afford to be ignorant about an issue that so vitally affects the present health of our families, and the well-being of this area's residents in the years to come," Mayor Counter declared.

Shreve added that he was sure residents will approve the new bond issue when they learn that it will lower, instead of raise, present taxes.

"By spreading the present costs of sewage disposal and the costs of the new improvements over a long period of years, enabling future as well as present residents to pay for this necessary function, taxes will be lowered as much as 10 per cent."

"In this way, with our continuing influx of new residents, a continually decreasing cost will be spread over a steadily increasing number of people, resulting in lower tax rates for all," Shreve pointed out.

Freeway Hearing Set; State Likes Moraga Route

The California Highway Commission announced Wednesday that it is considering the adoption of a freeway routing for State Route 233 between Park Boulevard at Eastwood Court in Oakland and Bollinger Canyon Road east of Moraga.

At the same time the Commission announced that it would hold a public hearing on the matter early in October. The exact time and place of the hearing will be announced later.

STATE HIGHWAY Route 233 was added to the State Highway System by the Legislature in 1953 and is described partly as being from Mountain Boulevard near the intersection of Park Boulevard in Oakland to State Sign Route 24 near Lafayette.

No traversable route is maintained by the State at present, and future development will be entirely on new location, including the section for which a route is now being considered, the commission stated.

A ROUTE for the section in Alameda County via Shepherd Canyon from Mountain Boulevard to Eastwood Court near the Contra Costa County line was adopted in September, 1954.

A route in Contra Costa County from Bollinger Canyon Road just east of St. Mary's College to State Sign Route 24 near Lafayette was adopted last year.

For the four and a half mile connecting link between these already adopted routings, State Highway Engineer G. McCoy has recommended a route through the low rolling hills north of Moraga.

It would continue east from the adopted location at East Court and Park Boulevard, cross San Leandro Creek and run through the hills into the west side of Moraga Valley.

It then would follow the hillside to southerly of Miramonte High School where it would run easterly north of Moraga and St. Mary's College, connecting with the previously adopted routing at Bollinger Canyon Road.

A PUBLIC MEETING called by the Division of Highways was held June 21 in the Miramonte High School at which the recommended route and possible alternatives were discussed.

At the public hearing to be held by the Commission, the results of Division of Highways studies of possible routes will be presented.

Local authorities, civic groups and interested individuals are invited to present any data and information which will assist the Commission in the determination of the most advantageous route for all concerned, it was announced by State Director of Public Works Frank B. Durkee, chairman of the Commission.

THE TOTAL LENGTH of State Highway Route 233 is approximately 10 miles. Plans of the Division of Highways call for the construction of a four-lane freeway over Route 233, with provision for an ultimate six lanes. Start of construction will depend on the availability of future state highway funds.

When constructed, the proposed highway will serve as an additional connection between Oakland and the rapidly growing central Contra Costa County area as well as an important connection to the north, south and east.

MEANWHILE, additional backing was given to the State-supported route by the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the National Audubon Society, which announced Wednesday that its members are "enthusiastically opposed" to routing the freeway through Redwood Canyon or through Indian Valley.

The conservation group has endorsed the route, stating that it hopes that the State Division of Beaches and Parks will act to make a state park of the entire Canyon area from Round Top Regional Park to San Leandro Reservoir.

Incorporation to Be Subject of Radio Broadcast

A view on the question of whether or not Orinda should be incorporated will be broadcast Sunday at 10:45 over Oakland radio station KROW.

C. W. Hammond, 112 Sleepy Hollow Lane, will devote his 15 minute weekly program to a discussion of the movement toward incorporation that has been the subject of much debate in recent weeks.

"I'm not too enthused about incorporation" was the pre-program view voiced by Hammond, who has been commentator of the program for the past 27 years.

"But," he continued, "I think the public should be aroused enough to study the problems thoroughly."

Expansion Calls for Big Hike in School Expenses

Orinda schools will cost taxpayers some 70 cents per $100 assessed valuation, more this year than last, the just-released school district budget for the coming year has revealed.

With last year's budget totaling $692,615 and costing John Public $1.11 per $100 assessed valuation, the 1956-57 budget calls for $841,211 and a $1.81 levy.

A public hearing on the new budget will be held on August 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Pine Grove School.

METEO-LIKE expansion of the district and a rise in assessed valuation from $15 million to $21 million were the causes of the budget hike laid down by Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

"The schools are larger," said Sheaff, "and they require more personnel and more equipment."

"For years we've had the lowest average daily attendance in the county," and we had to expand some time.

"It looks like this is the year."

Contributions to the heavier tax burden are several new expenses that have been imposed this year. Included among these is a new retirement annuity fund for teachers and administrators and a repayment of State school building apportionment of $27,000.

Another added financial burden, Sheaff stated, are the 14 new teachers and the new administrator hired into the district.

LARGEST SINGLE item on the budget is the $527,710 allocated for instruction. This compares to the $434,681 allotted for instructional costs last year.

Nine other items were outlined in the budget which went to make up the record smashing total. Of these, all but one were higher than comparable items on the 1955-56 budget.

The items, and their costs this year and last were:

1. Administration, 1956-57, $19,100; 1955-56, $12,330.
2. Auxiliary Services, $5,400; $4,693.
3. Operation of School Plant, $64,170; $54,483.
4. MAINTENANCE of School Plant, $24,900; $21,771.
5. Fixed Charges, $25,500; $6,962.
6. Transportation of pupils, $56,400; $48,819.
7. Food Services, $3,000; $297.
8. Community Services, $9,200; $7,785.
9. Capital outlay, $49,180; $52,045.

With the school district starting the year with a balance of $34,744 taxes will accommodate $375,516 of the budget. An even larger portion, $439,951, will come from State apportionments.

THE BUDGET also calls for up to $331,502 in bonds to be used in the district's building fund.

Of this total, the year is beginning with $131,502 already in the fund, with up to $200,000 of bonds to be sold.

Some $250,000 is to be borrowed from the State School Building Fund this year to supplement the building income, while $26,300 is expected to be spent on the new cafeteria at the Pine Grove School.

Sun Teenager Work Ad Offer To Be Extended

Response from teenagers and local residents alike has been so tremendous to the offer of The Sun to print free work-wanted ads for teenagers, that the offer is being extended through August 17.

As has been the policy for the past few weeks, The Sun will run, free, for any teenager, an ad of 10 words or less under the "work wanted" section in The Sun classified pages.

Previously the ads have been run for two weeks, but until August 17 the ads will appear one time only.

The conditions remain the same. A teenager must bring the ad copy to any Sun office, 1000 Orchard Road, Lafayette; 1320 Locust Street Walnut Creek, or 12 Vivian Drive, Pleasant Hill, by 3 p.m. Monday of the week of publication.

THE AD WILL appear in all five Sun publications—The Orinda Sun, Lafayette Sun, Walnut Creek Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun and Sun Shopping News.

And it seems evident from past experience that results will be just as gratifying as ever. Many pleased parents have told The Sun that their children have received tremendous response to these ads, run as a service to the community.

And many residents have seemingly been equally pleased to find such a wealth of talent and ability in their own back yards.

The Sun has sponsored the program in order to encourage teenagers, who often find time heavy on their hands during the summer, to take this opportunity to turn leisure hours into profitable endeavor.

ON THE OTHER HAND, it has

Youth Admits Setting Fires To Earn Money

A 15 year old boy has confessed setting grass and brush fires in the Moraga area over the past two months and also last summer, according to sheriff's officers.

The officers said that the boy told them that he set the fires so that he could earn extra money helping to douse the fires as a volunteer fireman at $1 an hour.

He admitted setting the Hunsaker Canyon grass fire between Moraga and Lafayette last Saturday, which swept over 80 acres of grass and brush, burning power poles and lines and leaving 10 homes without electricity.

The youth, described as an intelligent high school student, had been working as a mechanic this summer, but told officers that he needed extra money. He had earned $21 fighting fires this year.

He also admitted setting roadside fires near the Sacramento Northern trestles in Redwood Canyon and other range land grass fires.

Detective Louis Skuce, who had "checked out" several youthful suspects in the local area, obtained the confession last Monday, following a lead supplied him by Deputy Sheriff W. W. Waldeck.

Miramonte Pool Nearly Complete

Ten memberships are still available in the 30 family Miramonte Pools Organization, according to Bert Leavitt, president of the group.

Work is nearly complete on the community swimming pool and playground in the Highland Manor area, north of Walnut Creek. Much of the labor has been done by the members.

A 20 by 52 pool featuring heating, under-water lights, filters and a diving board is almost completed by the Roth and Huff Company of Walnut Creek. The pool will measure 9 feet in depth at one point.

The acre site will be completely landscaped; children's playground equipment will be installed and facilities for off street parking for 20 cars will be provided.

Membership fees are $400. Families interested in taking part in the pool project may get in touch with Leavitt at his home, 197 Miramonte Road. His telephone number is Yellowstone 4-5689.

A Dutch treat to meet in a Holland museum

When one of Orinda's hardworking husbands settled down to his midnite snack at the UC Lab the other night and the paperbag revealed assorted nails instead of his usual Ham-On-Rye, he ruefully reflected that the lady of his house was having a rare little joke, (he's been on an iron diet), which wasn't the case at all!

Just another absent-minded housewife who got a bagful of brads for her current community project mixed up on the kitchen counter w/hubby's usual hearty, and apparently heavy, repast.

IT'S A SMALL WORLD when the John Whinnerys attended a Rembrandt exhibit at an Amsterdam museum and quite accidentally bumped into their Sleepy Hollow neighbors, the Bill Brobecks . . .

John and Pat are home from a 6-wk. European jaunt that took them by air to Paris, London, week's motoring through both Switzerland and Italy, flying from Rome to Amsterdam, Munich, and Stockholm before coming back over the Manhattan-skyline and on home.

Joining Dorothy Bowman on the Wellesley Campus for the family buffet climaxing the activities of the 25th Class Reunion there, were her husband Arthur and their daughters Mary and Barbara, as well as Dorothy's parents, the Clifton Krolls of Piedmont . . . The family group later sightseeing along the Eastern Seaboard together.

The Everett Howes w/Sylvia and Milton, drove East to Iowa, St. Louis, the Grand Canyon and home through Texas for a colorful cruise by car while the Seldon Tostesons of Davis Road, who recently celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary, flew both ways on a vacation trip to Michigan, Illinois and Canada.

BEAUTIFUL LAKE CHAMPLAIN is the vacation destination of Betty Chilton and son Lance who left Tuesday by plane for New York.

The Dick Bottjers came home from their Spokane trip just in time to Aloha their houseguests, the James McMullins who stopped here enroute to a new home in Hawaii . . . The Hugh Riegers home from the Island w/a magnificent monkeyop saladbowl set they bought w/the "mad-money" gifted them by friends at a barbecue co-hosted by the Paul Beyerles and Elizabeth and Bob Mark before their late June departure.

LOOKING RIGHT AT HOME ON THE RANGE near Jackson Hole, Wyo., are Stella and Bob Boyle and their foursome, all wearing the same summery straw cowboy hats! ### Suit Threatened As Board Delays Quarry Decision

Furor over the controversial A. J. McCosker rock quarry permit was renewed this week along with the Board of Supervisors' assurance Tuesday that it will not render decision until the applicant submits a plot plan and other information on restrictions.

As the board will not meet again until August 7, it seems unlikely that any further official action will be taken on the permit until that time. But in the interim McCosker is expected to be gathering data for his submission, and the voices of protestants are still being heard.

One of the most audible of these has threatened legal action in the event that the county grant Free-way Industrial Properties, Inc. permission to operate the quarry on a 320-acre site in Redwood Canyon, near the Sacramento Northern Railroad tunnel.

THE VOICE was that of Daniel Wells of Canyon, who told the supervisors that the quarry operation would be unacceptable to residents in the area under any conditions.

Wells told the board that the protestants will do "everything in their control" to see that the permit is not issued.

"We will not allow restriction to be used as a loophole for permitting the quarry," he declared.

The board was discussing the proposed restrictions, submitted last week by county officials. The supervisors also renewed their invitation to protestors to submit in writing additional suggested restrictions or protests of those now under consideration.

The board was discussing the proposed restrictions, submitted last week by county officials. The supervisors also renewed their invitation to protestors to submit in writing additional suggested restrictions or protests of those now under consideration.

Mrs. Wilbur Koehler, 54 Lost Valley Drive, Orinda, presented petitions asking the board to prohibit blasting at the quarry site if the permit is granted.

SEVERAL PROTESTORS, including the Orinda Association and other homeowners' groups in the area, have demanded recently that McCosker be made to show proof that the rock for which the quarry would be operated is valuable and worthy of operation.

This was reiterated by Mrs. Koehler, who asked the board require that McCosker demonstrate scientifically that the rock to be quarried is superior to that already available from other sites before he is allowed to start operations.

A letter of protest from the Orinda Association was also presented to the supervisors, but the board claimed that letter offered no new information.

Some of the points made in the letter were that: "Blasting, objectionable at any time, would be a real public nuisance in an operation which would continue for years so close to homes already established."

"2. COUNTY ROADS proposed for use by the trucks are inadequate."

Move to Study New Moraga VA Hospital Site Thwarted

A move to get the Veteran's Administration to consider an other Moraga site for location of its home-seeking hospital has been thwarted by the Orinda Association and, "in the face of so much opposition," dropped by its instigator.

At an association meeting Monday night, Joe Zablocki, vice-chairman of the association's Civic Affairs Committee, revealed he had met with the Emergency Committee for Master Planning in Contra Costa County and initiated a proposal for another public meeting with the VA.

ZABLOCKI DISCLOSED that he had reserved the Miramonte presently available rock has been given.

"4. One quarry already in operation in the general area is enough."

"5. This operation would not be in the public interest."

The Orinda Association had voted at a board of directors meeting Monday night to go on record in opposition to the quarry. In spite of this protest, however, Mrs. Ritchie Ward, secretary of the association, stressed that the group "has at no time discussed the possibility of taking legal action should the quarry permit be granted."

THE BOARD of Supervisors stressed the proposed restrictions would limit quarrying to successive 20-foot-deep excavations from the top of a 1,455-foot knoll. Excavating would be limited to the hours between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m., Mondays through Fridays, and blasting to between 7 a.m. and 1 p.m. the same days.

Other restrictions would limit the weight and routes of all trucks visiting the quarry, which would be limited to 25 m.p.h. top speed.

In addition to disclosing his intentions to the Orinda Association, Zablocki had also approached the Oakland VA hospital administrator Sam Franks with the proposal for a second meeting.

"The matter is dropped as far as I'm concerned," was Frank's reply. The administrator added

Seven PH Boys Aboard Bus Overturned By Sacramento

Seven Pleasant Hill boys were aboard a bus which overturned near Sacramento July 19 on way to a Seventh Day Adventist summer camp near Lake Tahoe.

Four of the 48 passengers on the bus were injured and hospitalized. None of the injured were from this locale. The accident occurred 12 miles east of Sacramento near Nimbus on Highway 50.

THE BUS, which was loaded to capacity and driven by Don L. Winders of San Gabriel veered off the highway went out of control on the shoulder and overturned in a wide drainage ditch. Six ambulances including three from Mather Air Force Base and one from the Aero-Jet liquid rocket plant provided aid for the injured. Every available doctor and nurse was called in to check each of the boys who had been spilled from the bus.

All of the passengers were boys between the ages of 8 and 14. The bus had left Oakland about 9 in the morning had been picking up passengers along the way. When the bus overturned there was no panic. Reports claim the boys joked as they were helped into ambulances bound for hospitals.

The group was under the supervision of Winders and Fred Schalesky, 15, of 1910 San Luis Road. LOCAL YOUTHS on board the bus, according to California Highway Patrol reports were:

Robert Kahn is Representative at Washington Meet

Robert Kahn, 3367 Moraga Boulevard, arrives home today from Washington, D.C. where he attended a meeting called by the Director of the Budget to ascertain what progress is being made to cut the costs of "paperwork management" in government offices.

Kahn, a business counselor, was recommended by the California Retail Association to attend the meeting as a representative of this area. He left for Washington Wednesday.

Purpose of the meeting was to construct a report to President Eisenhower what progress has been made on recommendations of the Hoover Commission to "stop pestering taxpayers with the cost of unnecessary paperwork," Kahn said.

Report of economic moves in this direction was by the Retail Committee of the Advisory Council on Federal Reports.

that "Mr. Higley (H. V. Higley, administrator of veterans' affairs in Washington, D.C.) has made no decision on the ultimate location of the hospital."

After the Orinda Association had voted against his move, Zablocki commented that "It's fruitless to go on in the face of so much opposition."

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

Phone calls go "piggy-back" riding

Pretty soon now, many local telephone calls are going to start riding "piggy-back." They'll go one on top the other, as many as four separate calls at the same time on the same telephone line. This means one line will do the work of four. And, of course, that means more and better service to more people. For many years, "piggy-back" systems have been speeding your long distance calls. Now we've discovered how to use the same kind of equipment for local calls. This is an example of how telephone people work to develop new and better equipment. The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

Don't miss the fun . . . Telephone ahead for reservations!

Planning a spur of the moment weekend trip? Maybe with an eye on that cabin by the lake? You'll want to make sure you have just the right accommodations: the cabin you want, your favorite boat, the works. And the best way to do that is to phone ahead for reservations. You're sure of a confirmation, right on the spot. It costs so little and gives you so much peace of mind. Makes your whole trip more fun.

Come To The Fair
Young and old alike are always drawn to a County Fair. In Contra Costa County, August 2, 3, 4 and 5 will be Fair days at Antioch. Pacific Telephone Co. as part of it's county activities will have an exhibit in the main Fair building, staffed by representatives of the Company. The latest in colored instruments will be on display. During your tour of the Fair, don't forget to visit the telephone exhibit.

DRAMA DURING DROUGHT is what the Lafayette Playshop will depict tonight as the group's presentation of "The Rainmaker," by N. Richard Nash, opens a two-weekend stand at Las Lomas High School. With the curtain going up at 8:30, one of the show's scenes finds Don Edwards and Sherman Cackley mulling over the situation in the sheriff's office of a mid-western town.

ROMANCE, OF COURSE, enters the picture in the three-act drama in the persons of Starbuck, a confidence man, and Lizzie, the home-town girl. Starbuck, played by Charles Bosley, and Lizzie, enacted by Diane Davis, picnic together in one of the scenes directed by Lloyd Sizler. Starbuck is determined to defraud the drought-struck cattle town by posing as a "rainmaker."

THE POPULAR Broadway hit finds the Curry family, the folks about whom the action evolves, in consternation over Starbuck's promises to make rain. Here (left to right) Noah, the eldest son, and Jimmy, the youngest, emote over the situation with their father. Noah is played by Art Lewicki, Jimmy by Bob Loarz and Mr. Curry by Lloyd Holton. The play will run tonight, tomorrow night and next weekend. — Sun photo by Jim Gates

Safety 'Task Force' Will Locate in Walnut Creek

A Citizens' Action Force for Safety, headed by Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette, is being organized by the Contra Costa Safety Council, to conduct a public appeal for funds to establish a permanent safety headquarters under the direction of a full time safety expert.

Dr. B. Otis Cobb of Alhambra Valley Road, Martinez, president of the Safety Council, disclosed plans for the project, which will be undertaken in August.

Dr. Cobb pointed out that the phenomenal population and motor vehicle registration increases in the central and eastern county areas served by the council, require immediate, massive measures to control the mounting accident rate.

"A COMPREHENSIVE, well coordinated and continuing safety education campaign can save many lives, prevent hundreds of serious injuries and heavy financial losses traceable to unnecessary accidents," he stated.

"All community resources will be marshalled and coordinated under expert direction and every company, organization and individual in the area reached with the need of safety attitudes and practices in daily activities," he added.

Doyle, who resides at 3585 Powell Drive, Lafayette, has been active in volunteer safety work for 10 years, as a board member of both Contra Costa Safety Council and Eastbay Chapter National Safety Council, of which he is a past vice-president.

IN ACCEPTING leadership of the citizens' group, he pointed out that every business and every resident benefits directly or indirectly from effective safety education programs and that all share in responsibility for support of such programs.

He stressed that accidents have been reduced significantly in those areas served by full time safety council operations and that simi-

Boots, Spurs For Realtors On August 15

Members of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board are getting ready for their annual barbecue, to be held August 15 at Chubby Humble's, Clayton.

Bill Hayward is chairman, a post which he held two years ago. He was appointed by Frank Curtis, program chairman.

Theme of the barbecue will be "The Wild West," and boots and spurs will replace oxfords and loafers.

It was announced that Sans Realty has changed its name to Kurtz Realty, and has located at 6 Bryant Way, Orinda.

The Realtors were gratified when they received a phone call from Mrs. George Stanton.

She said she had purchased a home from one of the members, and she wanted to express her thanks and appreciation for the courtesy and help she received.

Multiple listing sales for the first three weeks of July totaled $1,230,585. Total sales for 1955 were $1,507,690.

Mayor Conference Has Compromise In Tax Debate

Contra Costa County was offered this week 2 1/2 per cent of the cities' take, should a uniform, county-wide one per cent sales tax be enacted.

The Mayors' Conference offered the compromise at the Board of Supervisors meeting Tuesday. The Supervisors earlier asked for five per cent.

The new formula was reached after a series of meetings of the Mayor Conference, according to its president, Walnut Creek Mayor E. C. Counter Jr.

If agreed to by the county officials, the state of California will collect for itself three per cent as usual, but also for the cities and county another one per cent.

The 11 cities already collect a one per cent sales tax, but the state collection will result in greater efficiency and greater returns. The county has no sales tax, and will reap the profit.

But the county has felt that it should get a share of the city take, and asked for five per cent. A deadlock resulted.

If the Supervisors accept the 2 1/2 per cent split, the uniform sales tax could go into effect by October 1, said Counter.

There were no stipulations on how the 2 1/2 per cent should be spent by the county.

United Crusade Area Chairmen Hold Meeting

Organization of the approaching residential campaign of the United Crusade was discussed in a meeting of area chairmen July 16, under the direction of Marilyn Glover, division residential chairman.

Representatives attended from each of the areas which compose the Diablo Valley division of the United Bay Area Crusade. (UBAC).

The importance of the residential campaign was stressed by Mrs. Glover who stated that approximately 30 per cent of the proceeds from the area in 1955 was due to residential solicitation.

A decision was reached by the committee with regard to the type of campaign to be conducted this year. Contacts, personal or telephone, will be made by a Crusade worker prior to an extensive "blitz" campaign Sept. 15-16.

Prospective large donors, who contributed $10 or more in 1955 and residents of sparsely settled areas will be contacted by telephone, while in large subdivision areas, such as Pleasant Hill, house to house canvassing will be in effect.

Individual Crusade workers will carry with them a packet listing the agencies which benefit by the campaign and describing the campaign itself. These kits will be packaged by the Girl Scouts.

Stop Cards, lists of families contributing prior to the campaign, will be issued to solicitors this year to prevent unnecessary contacts. Never the less, it was stated, many families, who have aided the campaign through business, would be approached again since it is not feasible at the present time to compile a list of all business contributors.

Precinct maps were distributed to the various chairmen, outlining the area to be solicited by their respective workers.

It was decided, following the precedent established last year, that each worker would make 20 contacts, preferably in his own neighborhood. This type of canvassing would probably entail an introductory phone call, followed by the two-day, house to house campaign.

The residential campaign is organized on several levels of official responsibility. Mrs. Glover is the division residential chairman. Under her direction are the area chairmen from Orinda, Moraga, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville, Alamo and Pleasant Hill. Community chairmen will be selected to represent six or seven precincts.

Under their supervision are the area chairmen, who represent particular precincts. These people, all volunteers, will organize and conduct the residential campaign.

Fatal Cave-in Is Ruled Accidental

The cave-in death of Percy Parker, 42, last July 10 was found to have been accidental by a coroner's jury here last week.

Parker, a laborer for a construction company digging a sewer trench at the end of Vacation Road, Lafayette, was buried by several yards of dirt when walls of the ditch caved in while he was shoring up the sides.

'Listing Post' is New Feature for All Sun Readers

Sun readers will find a new feature appearing each week in The Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun, Walnut Creek Sun and Pleasant Hill Sun.

The column, "The Listing Post," will be written by Walnut Creek Realtor Bill Hayward, and will be devoted to features and news of the world of real estate, construction and development.

The column appears in The Sun in cooperation with the Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

This column will appear as a regular feature because of the importance of development, construction and real estate news to an area which is expanding as fast as that of Central Contra Costa County.

Garbage Problem Growing Worse

The Contra Costa Mosquito Abatement District recently reported finding widespread and prolific fly production occurring in household garbage cans.

Flies from this source are a hazard to health and a severe annoyance, and preventing these pests from being produced in garbage cans is a simple matter according to Ernest Campbell, Mosquito District Manager.

To keep flies from your garbage can the garbage should be well wrapped, the can should be clean and dry and the lid should be replaced immediately at all times, he said. Newspaper is good for wrapping garbage and is superior to paper bags, especially for table or cooking scraps and left-overs.

Lining the sides and bottom of the can with newspaper helps to keep the can clean. By wrapping the garbage, flies are prevented from depositing eggs on any suitable material and a properly fitting lid is additional security in keeping flies away from the garbage.

If the lid has a hole under the handle this hole should be sealed or plugged to prevent fly entrance.

Health Officers Urge Checking Of Young Teeth

The County Health Department today urged parents to have dental examinations and necessary treatment for children entering kindergarten.

The reminder from the Health Department was based on dental examinations of 2,500 kindergarten, one-third of whom were found to be in urgent need of dental care.

Other findings showed that 78 per cent of the 5-year-olds have experienced dental decay; that on the average each child has four teeth that have been attacked by decay and that sixty per cent of the defects are uncorrected.

In addition to regular dental care for better dental health, the County Health Department recommended moderation in the use of sweets and brushing the teeth right after eating, or swishing with water and swallowing when brushing is not convenient.

The Listing Post...

By BILL HAYWARD

It would be entirely impossible to mention in the first writing of the Listing Post all of the activities taking place in real estate in the central part of our fast growing county.

Skimming over some of the highlights, let's take, first of all, Danville:

THE VERY LARGE and much written about Bishop ranch continues to jump into the news from time to time, according to a report from the Central Sanitary District Office. As you know subdividers and developers must first check the availability of sanitary facilities before plans can be made on any parcels of land of any size in our area.

Future development of our entire area and the speed with which progress will take place depends to a great extent upon the successful passage of the $8,900,000 bond issue which is slated for the voters to vote upon August 7th, 1956, just less than 3 weeks away.

Lafayette continues to expand toward the south. I enjoyed a guided tour of the model home at Waverley Farms, south of Glendale — a very attractively designed home built by Fay Chaney, and the model tastefully decorated by Bill Simpson of Lafayette. Phil Greer is the sales agent!

PLEASANT HILL hops around with Creekside Homes another feather in the hat of Orinda's busy developer, Boise and Soule. Al Wilkie builds a fine home again!

Orinda forever with growing pains has the great area toward Moraga to look to in the future. According to Bill Barnes, Harold Smith, developer and builder, is leading the way in his development in the Rheem Blvd. area.

Ivy Drive, just off of Moraga Highway is the locale for the Dawe Construction Company and their newest addition to that group of handsome residential properties.

WALNUT CREEK and east: We are all watching the tree removal and widening of Ygnacio Valley Rd. This county road development program will include some minor realignments and two or three new bridges to allow for a future four lane highway in the direction of Pittsburg.

The Antioch-Pittsburg commuters are now enjoying the short cut east of Oak Grove Rd. saving them 20 minutes a day in getting to and from their jobs. Eichler has ditched the Wheeler Ranch in favor of Jordan and Reed Construction Company who intend to continue the development in that area.

At this writing we are not in a position to explain the type of architecture which will be followed. Mark our words! Ygnacio Valley will be the population center between Concord and Walnut Creek in less than 20 years.

NEXT WEEK the Listing Post will present some factual information concerning the plans for the Development of the Dollar property in the Tice Valley Area.

In closing: If any of you readers, and there may be some, would like to play the role of a Listing Post Spy, the writer would appreciate a card. Just address it to P.O. Box 511, Walnut Creek, we'll even pay the postage.

Turtle Has Amusing Voice

By SHERMAN PEARL

"The Voice of the Turtle" was slightly hoarse last weekend but prompted its audience to hearty laughter with a racy story as the play opened in the Lafayette Town Hall.

Had the Dramateur players been a bit more assured of the types of characters they were portraying, and had Carl Rasmussen's direction been pointed more toward a parody of the "voice" rather than of the "turtle," an even more amusing presentation of the John Van Druten comedy might have been rendered.

But the comic story of an illicit love affair between a soldier on leave and a "precocious" actress was not really designed for theater-in-the-round, the Dramateurs' method of presentation. Some clever set designing was not quite enough to overcome the three room set obstacle.

An admirable and charming portrayal of Sally, the young actress, was given by Betty Moran. But her vivacity was at times bogged down by the line difficulties of Bruce Sloane as the soldier, Bill, and Betty Reynolds, who played an older, man-chasing actress, Olive.

Miss Reynolds, amusing as the lady who lends her boy friend to Sally for a weekend, was well cast but occasionally fell into the limbo of an actress out of character.

At a point early in the show Betty, discussing the soldier, tells Sally "I never know what he's thinking."

When Bill made his entrance, it was apparent that he was thinking mostly of his lines. This was made up for, however, by Sloane's disarming and natural style.

"The Voice of the Turtle" needed a little throat-clearing and resonance, but still told a funny story in a believable manner.

The show, though perhaps not quite up to the standard set by previous dramateur productions, nevertheless provides a tickling presentation of a ticklish situation.

It runs again tonight and tomorrow night at the Lafayette Town Hall, with "curtain time" at 8:30.

Summer Library Program in Swing

The summer library program in the Walnut Creek School District is in full swing, according to Librarian Mrs. Gladys Toomey.

The libraries are open Tuesday at Buena Vista School, Wednesday at Parkmead, and Thursday at Walnut Heights.

UBAC Public Relations Unit Meets on Campaign Plans

"Give them a hand... the one in your pocket," is this year's United Crusade theme as was presented to the public relations steering committee meeting of the Diablo Valley United Crusade July 18 in Walnut Creek Kaiser Hospital.

John Hutchinson, UBAC public relations director, reported on the various publicity media which are being or will be employed throughout the Bay Area for the United Crusade Campaign.

A vigorous and thorough publicity campaign for the UC will be carried on through the use of special events, the press, printed materials, radio, television, outdoor advertising, transit advertising, motion pictures and religious groups, he stated.

Representatives from various agencies were present at the meeting to relate the activities of their respective agencies regarding the United Crusade.

The agencies represented were only a small portion of the 288 Bay Area volunteer organizations which the UC helps to support.

The Diablo Valley Crusade focuses on the communities of Orinda, Moraga, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Alamo and Concord.

From these communities Diablo Valley cabinet members are comprised. They are Jack Pedder, president; Don Nesbit, vice-presi-

Letters to The Editor

QUARRY DECISION

Dear Editor:

At the request of Supervisor Cummings, the Board of Supervisors set this Tuesday as the date to hear restrictions and either grant or deny to Freeway Industrial Properties a permit to operate a rock quarry on the A. J. McCosker property in the Redwood Canyon area.

Because it is in the Canyon area, many think of it as far away, secluded, and of no concern to the people of Orinda. The prominently high hill which Mr. McCosker proposes to quarry by leveling from the top in a series of 25 foot lifts, is immediately above the homes in Lost Valley and directly across from the homes on Crest View Drive and Culver Court.

In his soft spoken, mild mannered way, Mr. McCosker appears to have minimized his proposed operation so that people in both Canyon and Orinda have been lulled into a false sense of security.

As a quarry operator in Oakland, Mr. McCosker must surely be aware that his red rock quarry on Lincoln Avenue is but a peanut stand compared to the vast operation needed for a successful quarry in Canyon.

There is a quarry already operating in this general vicinity. Not the defunct Kaiser Quarry, but the Tunnel Rock Quarry, which is now producing specification material for State Highway jobs, the County of Contra Costa and the City of Oakland as well as for Mr. McCosker's Independent Construction Company.

The present operating quarry has immediate access to the freeway in to Oakland and Contra Costa County. It is a full scale quarry operation, noisy and ugly, but so secluded that many people fail to realize it is there.

The proposed McCosker quarry, on the other hand, will be open to the four winds of heaven, clearly visible in all directions and a source of genuine concern to people in the immediate vicinity.

Being in the same geological area as Tunnel Rock, the McCosker quarry will have to be operated in the same way — BLAST-ED.

It can not possibly be done as a super sub-division but will be a dirty, noisy and ugly job immediately above the people of Lost Valley and adjacent to the proposed State Park area of beautiful Redwood Canyon.

Access and exit will have to be through Redwood Canyon, past the Canyon School and along a narrow, tortuous road.

Unless Mr. McCosker can prove, before a permit is granted, that his proposed quarry will produce specification material superior to and different from that which is already obtainable from an existing quarry, this permit should be categorically denied.

The personal profit to Mr. A. J. McCosker, will I believe, be far out-weighted by the damage to individuals, communities, park areas, public utilities and public lands.

Mrs. HELEN M. BOLE

Oil Drilling In San Ramon At 4500 Feet

Nearing the 4500-foot mark are drillers at the Buttes/Otto No. 1 potential well, located a mile and a half west of Danville.

O. G. Green, president of the Buttes Gas and Oil Company, Oakland, said today that "there have been some very good showings so far, but nothing commercial, as yet."

Some gas and oil sands have been reached, but the sands which contain them must be of a loose, coarse nature, to allow the free flow which is necessary to economical extraction from the ground.

"It all depends on the signs as they drill deeper, but our limit will probably be about 7000 feet," said Green.

This is the only well which the Buttes Company is working in this county, but two other projects are going in other areas.

Owner of the local plot is Alfred Otto. Superintendent on the job is Vern Coats.

Last March the company abandoned Buttes-Weideman No. 1 after penetrating nearly 9000 feet.

Moraga Sun

Moraga Dateline

By EVA THUNE, DR 6-5593

The summer is half gone and finally comes a few days of hot, humid, true-to-life seasonal days. Our electrical display of last week brought back very vividly the days when I lived in Michigan, on the shore of Lake Michigan, and used to watch the lightning storms across the water.

Believe it or not, I'm as big a coward now as then.

Although we didn't get the rain here, the Leo Read family got plenty of rain, lightning and even hail last Thursday, at Lake Tahoe, where they spent the second week of their vacation.

Elaine said they had beautiful weather the rest of the time, but they were very fortunate to have come home a few hours earlier than the flash flood which struck between Reno and Tahoe, where several people were trapped in their cars.

FAMILY PROJECTS

The Reads, Leo and Elaine and their two children, Sharon and Tommy, left two weeks ago for their vacation with Harry and Irene Rohrer and children Gay and Bill Kohrer.

On their way, the two families stopped over for two days in Reno, then proceeded on to the Barnes Ranch in Jiggs, which is about 40 miles out of Elk, Nev., where they spent a delightful five days riding, fishing for brook trout and swimming.

On the return trip, the Rohers stopped over a day at Lake Tahoe, then continued on toward home, while the Reads spent another week at the Seaton's Motel in State Line.

Another lucky couple, just returned from a stay away from home, were Clare and Art Fleuti, who spent a week relaxing at the cabin of good friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Horner of St. Mary's Estates. The fishing and swimming, although unproductive, were fun at Wawona, Yosemite.

Son David also came in for his share of pleasure for he spent the week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Neal, at Hanford, Calif., at Santa Cruz, where they were vacationing. I'll bet everybody enjoyed that week.

In the teen-age department, Mickey Kazar, son of Evelyn Kazar, Moraga Grocery Store, went on a camping trip of five days with a cousin, Cynthia Zaranofitis, and two others.

They were able to drive in by car to within a short distance of Emerald Bay, Tahoe, but were unable to complete the journey because of slides.

Mickey tells me they hiked several miles to Granite Lake, where they tried fishing, but didn't get a bite. However, even though the fish weren't biting, the mosquitoes were, and the hardy campers were forced to spend the last night sleeping in their car.

Forty-six mosquito bites — he counted them!

WINDUP SHOPPING

The week before Evelyn and Mickey Kazar entertained their 17-year-old cousin, Joan DeMar, of Menlo Park, and Evelyn tells me the boys really developed an interest in the store. The boys' report she was mighty cute.

Billie Jean Clark, sophomore at Miramonte High School, spent two and a half weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark, of Clark's Market, Richey Center, and two sisters, Mickey and Jackie, cruising down the Sacramento River.

Our hats are off to the three youngsters who are spending their allowance and earnings not for candy and trinkets, but for Savings Stamps. Their names—Patty Munsterer, Kathy Gesinger and Gay Rohrer.

Mrs. Jo Rodriguez, Moraga, was confined to the Providence Hospital, Oakland, on July 18 with a vein infection. She was released and returned home Monday and is, according to her report, feeling fine and able to get around and take care of her two month daughter.

During her confinement, Ed and Helen Kamens, of Bollinger Canyon, whom I consider "good neighbors," took and cared for the tiny girl. Helen told me today, "She was the sweetest and best baby. I miss her already."

The Kamens are the kind of people we need more of in this world. I go on record with my personal applause.

In our WELCOME NEIGHBOR corner, we have the return of some old friends of ours, the Curly Busans, who recently moved to Reno, but because of the climate, came back to Moraga, where they will shortly move back into the house they formerly rented from the Chesters Madsens on Camino Pablo.

NEW NEIGHBORS

A new family on Larch Road is Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Starkey, and their two children, Linda and Johnny, who will both attend Moraga School in the fall.

The Starkeys just moved into our neighborhood from Upland, Calif., where Rodney was attending and received his B.A. degree at Pomona College. At the present, he is working for Bill Lance in the landscaping and paving business.

The Starkeys are not entirely strangers in this community, however, as Rodney formerly attended St. Mary's College. Welcome back.

Herewith is a reminder of the special Community Club meeting tonight, which will be an open meeting for all interested persons. On the agenda will be a school board report on the planned modification of the old school, plans for the new school and teachers.

Latest on the fire protection, the sewer bond issue, and a report on the storm drainage on Camino Pablo will be heard.

Also, the proposed change in their club by-laws, pertaining to the election of officers. As this procedure will soon arise, this proposal should be acted upon. We hope to have a good turnout, so see you tonight at the Moraga School.

Lutheran

"Learning from a Worldling" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Merle O. Tollefson of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, Lafayette, at the 8:15 and 11 a.m. worship services this Sunday. Nursery accommodations are available during the 11 a.m. service.

The Sunday School meets at 9:30 a.m., with classes for those three years old through Adult Bible Class.

Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. the Board of Deacons will meet at the church.

Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. the mid-week Bible Study will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Iver Jacobson, 73 Cragmont Court, Walnut Creek.

The Adult Inquiry Class will meet at the church Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

Community

Dwight Williams, who is filling duties at the Lafayette Community Methodist Church in the absence of Rev. Lewis, will give the sermon Sunday morning at morning worship services, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Church School will be held at 9:30 only, while H-School Methodist Youth Fellowship and Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m.

The church announces that with so many parishioners on vacation, the Circle meetings of the Women's Society of Christian Service, as well as the executive board meeting and the general meeting, are indefinite.

Information on these may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Ralph Winters, WSCS president, or Circle chairman.

Youth Groups

Visit the City

With school out and summer vacation well advanced, the Pilgrim Fellowship groups of the Orinda Community Church have been enjoying a program of activity at home in the bay area and away from home at the various church camps.

The Junior P.F.s are the seventh and eighth graders and the senior P.F.s are the high school age members of the church.

Both groups extend a cordial invitation to Orinda young people to join in the fun and fellowship. Last week the Junior P.F.s took in Playland at the Beach after which the group visited TV station KRON.

The Senior P.F.s toured Coit Tower, dined at Fisherman's Wharf, rode the cable cars, saw China Town and attended the TV show "San Francisco Tonight."

Scouts Return from Sierras

Tales of exciting experiences and descriptions of the natural beauties that they viewed during two weeks of hiking and camping in the High Sierra were told and retold by the Boy Scouts of Lafayette Troop 224 when they met at the Springhill Road swimming pool as guests of their sponsoring unit, the Springhill Road Improvement Association, Monday evening.

Despite the fact that a last minute change in their original plans for the trip was brought about by prevalent cold temperatures in the high regions of the mountains, the members of Troop 224 trekked into the Sierra wilderness area of the Mono Pass region the first of July. For two weeks the scouts and their leaders, Dale Black and Don Hoskins, explored the Mono Recesses. They finally made an ascent to the crest of Mono Pass which they had originally intended to cross. A heavy snow pack had failed to recede, and the scouts found it necessary to enter the wilderness area along a lower trail.

Go to Church Sunday

Presbyterian

Rev. Dave Beamer, youth minister of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, will be guest speaker at both services at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Mr. Beamer will be remembered for his ministry in the church last year.

Church school classes are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. at the Lafayette Town Hall for children over three years. Nursery for both classes is at the home of Mrs. Ellen Briens, 1030 Browne Avenue, Lafayette.

Friends and members who can possibly do so are urged to send their children to the 11 o'clock service at the Sunday School because of overcrowded conditions at the Town Hall. We must comply with all fire regulations.

You are urged to publicize our services among your friends and neighbors and invite them to visit with us if they do not have another church home.

Community

For man people today the Bible seems confusing. How can we find meaning in this book which so inspired our forebears?

Rev. Chauncey Blossom will use as his sermon topic, "How The Bible Spells Confusion" at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday morning at the Orinda Community Church.

The Chapel Choir will sing "Seek Ye The Lord" by Roberts. Under the leadership of Mrs. Sydney Anderson, Church School for all ages through High School will convene at 9:30 a.m. There will be nursery care at the 11 o'clock service.

A swim party will feature the Senior Pilgrim Fellowship meeting Sunday afternoon; time and place to be announced.

Junior Pilgrim Fellowship will have a barbecue and swim party at the home of Priscilla Devin, Jonas Hill Road, Moraga, from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, with the Andrews Hartanovs and William Jones as sponsors.

Gala 'Fun Day' to Mark End of Summer Rec Events

Six weeks of summer fun and activities will be culminated next Thursday at the area-wide Fun Day at the Stanley School, which will bring to a close this year's Lafayette Summer Recreation program.

Highlight of Fun Day will be the finals of the Junior Olympics, which are slated to begin at 9:15. Young athletes have spent the past two weeks in training and preliminary elimination meets in preparation for the "Big Day."

Although the survivors of the elimination meets anxiously await the athletic portion of Fun Day, other youngsters who have been participating in the recreation program anticipate a day of outstanding events in other fields.

ARTS AND CRAFTS work completed by summer recreation participants during the summer will be displayed during the day in Room 15 of the Stanley School. Exhibitions are to include leather, jewelry, and clay works and crafters' paintings.

Expression through art mediums, of course, is not always a sufficient vehicle for the talents of local youth, so a full-scale Talent Show will be held from 9:30 to 10 a.m. on Fun Day in the school auditorium. Dancers, singers and actors will find plenty of room for showing their abilities.

Movies will be occupying Room 16 of the school during the gala day, starting at 10:40 a.m. The flicker line-up calls for two cartoons, the "Poet and Peasant" and "Woody Dines Out," "Water Sports," an interesting feature, and an adventure film, "Camera Thrills in Africa."

All other school playgrounds will be closed on Thursday, announces Summer Recreation Director Ted Collins, as everyone is invited to participate in Fun Day. Invitations are also extended to parents to join in the fun, Collins adds.

The other four days of the last week of the program will be fully utilized, however, as each school plans a full schedule of activities.

VALLEJO SCHOOL — The arts and crafts portion of the recreation program at Vallejo School will end with Wood and Cork Week. Among the objects to be made are wooden wall hot-pads holders and cork coasters. Following Thursday's Fun Day at Stanley, the Vallejo enthusiasts will spend Friday cleaning up their summer's work and watching movies.

Actors at the school will participate in Fun Day with the presentation of "The Rabbit Who Wanted Wings."

Preparation for the Junior Olympics will, of course, occupy the attentions of the sports-minded at Vallejo, but in addition ping-pong, football and baseball will be played.

LAFAYETTE SCHOOL — The Fun Day effort of students at Lafayette School will be a well-coordinated group dance, announce directors Rita Erl and Cathy Grub. But despite rehearsals and preparations, youngsters will find time to make tumblerettes from paper plates and other objects from cork.

Junior Olympics practice at Lafayette will also have to share the week's spotlight. Tuesday will be the day for the school's bike rodeo, which is to feature racing, obstacle courses and many other events for the wheelers.

As the program at the school draws to a close, final tournament winners in badminton, table tennis, 3-man basketball, paddle tennis and shuffleboard will be decided.

STANLEY SCHOOL — All efforts of summer recreation youngsters at the Stanley School will be directed toward making Fun Day a big success. The host school will be completing several projects it will have on display Thursday. Some of the articles to be whipped into shape are address books, match boxes, pen wipers and ink blotters, and leather work.

Hal White, athletic director at Stanley, will have the double task of completing the "Dizzy Decathlon" events and preparing the school for the Junior Olympics. His prodigies will be winding up the last two events of the Decathlon, with Billy Albert and Tom Strain currently battling for first place.

SPRINGHILL SCHOOL — With enthusiasm of arts and crafts at Springhill School completing their projects as the program ends, the intricate steps and movements of folk dancing will be learned for the folk dance exhibit the school will present at Fun Day.

On the last day of the program, Friday, comic hats and masks will be appropriate projects for the children who have spent a summer of fun at the school.

Some six boys at Springhill will be practicing the 10 minute tumbling exhibition they will put on for parents and friends during Fun Day.

Keen competition for spots in the Junior Olympics will also take place as the school's elimination finals take place.

MONTECITO SCHOOL — A puppet show and a skit will be the Montecito School contributions to Fun Day. In the wake of that day, recreation participants will return to the school Friday for a final clean-up of projects. During the week, however, arts and crafts activities will continue with fish-bowl pictures and textile shadow boxes.

Six-man football at the school will offset the hubbub that will proceed the Junior Olympics. Athletes will all be striving for their rights to compete with the top stars of the other schools.

BURTON SCHOOL — Two "Fun Days" in a row will be the highlights of the final week at the Burton School. The first, of course, will be the one at Stanley School. But that will be followed on Friday with Burton's own fun activities.

These will include a treasure hunt and relay races for both boys and girls.

Before this, however, the week will be spent in final tryouts for the Junior Olympics and in coaching reviews of the sports youngsters at the school have been learning the past five weeks.

In addition to preparing for Fun Day activities, arts and crafters at the Burton School will be working with plaster of Paris and going through folk dance routines. Friday, the final day of the season, will be spent in cleanup.

Dramatic Group Organizes Play

People interested in any aspect of their lives make-up to lighting, are invited to attend an August 9 meeting of the Orinda high school student drama group, "The Curtain Caller," to help organize the group's next production.

The meeting, called to organize the production staff for the forthcoming play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," will be held at the home of Judy Henderson, 32 Loma Vista, and is to begin at 7:30 p.m.

The newly-organized dramatic group has been meeting every other week throughout the summer for try-outs and reading for the play.

Officers for the production are: Judy Henderson, president; Ann Monroe, secretary; Judy Howes, treasurer; and Becky Harris, librarian. Further information may be obtained by calling CL 4-3592.

Rural Postal Delivery to Be Instituted in Moraga

Free rural mail delivery will be established "on or about September 8" from the Moraga Post Office, Mrs. Elmer Dickinson, Moraga postmaster, announced this week.

Because "Moraga is growing so fast," Mrs. Dickinson stated, delivery service is being instituted in the area to supplement the post office box system now employed.

Although details on the proposed new postal service have not been made available as yet, Congressman John F. Baldwin has reported from Washington that he is "very pleased to see that such service is going to be placed in operation."

Local Orators Host Oaklanders

The newly organized LaRinda Toastmasters Club recently were hosts at a joint dinner meeting with the Merritt Toastmasters Club of Oakland at the Casa Orinda.

Speakers for the meeting were David Brown and Bob Hoffman from the Merritt Club and Dave Baird and Vice Gates from the local organization. Gates capped the "Best Speech" trophy as he spoke on the subject, "Are There Too Many Engineers?"

Toastmaster for the meeting was Dick Colemand and Mel Shine was Table Topics chairman. Orinda Bill Thaler was the winner of the table topics trophy.

The LaRinda club holds weekly dinner meetings at the Casa Orinda Monday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30. The club announces that membership is still open, and that interested persons may contact George Sanko at AT 3-8096, or may stop by any of the meetings.

Kirk Miles Party Honors Visitors

Last week's electrical storm started the evening at the chuck wagon dinner party given at the home of the Kirk Miles on La Plaza in honor of Betty and Marshall Hinkley. The Hinkley family is visiting this area from Old Greenwich, Connecticut where they have heat lightning during summer weather.

Attending the party were thirty-five P.F.s and their teenage friends of Orinda. A huge punch bowl was a popular gathering spot between games and the Bar-B-Q.

Sun and School Mix For Hawaii U. Student

Among 3700 students enrolled at the University of Hawaii summer session this year is Miss Jean Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Anderson of 18 Monte Veda Drive.

Twenty-three professors from leading mainland institutions are on the summer faculty at the University, including Dr. Joseph R. Levinson, Dr. Leslie M. Lipson and Dr. Richard L. Park, all of the University of California.

Heap Big Powwow For Indian Braves

Orinda's Kitchawong Tribe of the YMCA Indian Guides trekked to Mt. Diablo last weekend for an overnight camping trip.

Braves at the PowWow included John and Jimmy Babcock, Jim and Jimmy Benney, Jim and Jimmy Campbell, Harry and Scott Clemons, Joe and Douglas DeCosta, Art and Peter Jensen, Bill and Rickey Lueck, and Ray and Ronnie O'Flynn.

Carnival, Dance Tonight End Summer Rec Program

Carnival Time hit the Orinda Recreation Summer Program this last week, and excitement was high.

Running helter and skelter, Orinda kids had "barrels of fun" trying their skill at the various games set up on the Orinda School Playground. Many a director got "soaked" at the "Soak-the-Director" booth.

In addition, kids were lined up waiting to try their skill at "Shootin' Gallery," where many a duck was "felled." "Hoop Toss" drew a fine crowd as did "Squirt The Candle."

A race of skill drew the youngsters to "Speedway" and "Horse Racing."

"Ping Pong Pitch" and "Roll 'Em In" also had the kids rolling in fun.

Hot dogs and pop were served as refreshments, and one of the biggest attractions were the "Caricature Drawings" of the kids.

Closing out the Orinda Summer Recreation Program for 1956 will be a dance tonight at the Pine Grove Auditorium for all Orinda kids going into the seventh grade on up. Donation is 30 cents, and refreshments will be served.

The dance will start at 8 p.m. and end at 11.

Parents and kids are reminded by the recreation staff members that the playgrounds will be closed the remainder of the summer, and will re-open at the start of school.

SMOKE IN SAFE PLACES

"No Smoking" areas in the home include beds, closets, attic and the work bench when shavings are around or flammable liquids are being used.

INSPECTORS OF the newly-completed additions to the Del Rey School found that the Hancock Construction Company had done a "very nice job." They checked the 12 new rooms recently. Discussing the construction outside the school are (left to right) William S. Indig, chief estimator for Hancock Construction, Mrs. Catherine Schwarck, president of the Orinda School Board, Joseph L. Sheaff, school superintendent, Karl Schevill, school board clerk, Arnold White, school board inspector, and architect Jack Buchter.

Harry Millman, 60, Ex-Orindan, Dies in Berkeley

Mr. Harry Abram Millman, an Orinda resident for several years until his recent move to Berkeley, died last week at the age of 60.

A native of Chicago and for many years a real estate and hotel business man, Mr. Millman had been making intense studies in anthropology, having received his Master's degree from the University of California in that field.

His Master's thesis was written on a little-known Indian caste, following his study trip to India.

Mr. Millman was survived by his son, Don, of Berkeley, and daughter, Miss Connie D. Millman of Chicago. His wife died about two years ago. Other survivors are his brother, Jack H. Millman of Los Angeles, and sisters, Mrs. Lillian Garfield of Chicago and Mrs. Shirley O. Feika of Miami, Fla.

Services were held last Sunday at the McNary Chapel in Berkeley. Rabbi Sidney Akselrad of Temple Beth-El, Berkeley, officiated.

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

$1 1/2 Million Rd. Contract Let

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has awarded a contract for the largest road construction contract ever given by the county, a $1,577,778 proposed reconstruction of a five mile stretch of the San Pablo Dam and Bear Creek Road near Orinda.

The project is part of an eleven and a quarter mile reconstruction of the San Pablo Dam Road to the Orinda Intersection, which is expected to be finished sometime late in 1957.

The contract was awarded to Frederickson and Watson Construction Company, of Oakland.

Closed Meetings! It's Collins Again!

Well, it sounds like the same old story, but here we go again!

District Attorney Francis Collins has ruled that the state law does not require the board of supervisors, meeting as a board, to meet in public when "seeking information" from a group of heads of various Contra Costa County departments.

By "State Law" we assume that Mr. Collins is referring to the "Brown Act" which prohibits the holding of "secret" meetings or "Star Chamber" sessions by public bodies.

The Brown Act states:

"It is the intent of the law that their (public commission, boards, councils and other public agencies) actions be taken openly, and that their deliberations be conducted openly.

"The people of this state do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them. The people in delegating their authority do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know.

"Meetings to be open and public. All meetings of the legislative body of a local agency (definition includes any board, commission, or agency thereof, or any board or commission thereof . . .) shall be open and public and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of the legislative body of a local agency except as otherwise provided in this chapter."

The "otherwise provided" refers to executive sessions concerning personnel matters . . . the employment or dismissal of an employee.

Now we don't claim to be attorneys; or particularly learned in the law, but we do believe that when the Brown Act states ALL MEETINGS of the legislative body, that is what it means.

We also believe that when the act states all persons shall be permitted to attend ANY MEETING of the legislative body, that that, again, is what it means.

We cannot understand why Mr. Collins is making such a ruling, but it does seem to us that he is being extremely unwise . . . both politically and morally.

It is neither right nor politic that any District Attorney should make a ruling which restricts the right of the public — the taxpayer and citizen — to learn what is going on in the government which he supports.

It also does not matter whether the board of supervisors chooses to call the meeting a "study session," a "planning conference," or a "coffee hour." Mr. Collins told the Supervisors not to call their conference a "meeting."

A meeting is a meeting and the citizen has a right to attend!

We suggest that Mr. Collins should review his decision, before it is necessary that someone with authority and understanding review it for him.

The last time this occurred was on January 16 in the Superior Court of Contra Costa County when Judge Wakefield Taylor ruled that the public must be permitted to attend "study sessions" of the County Planning Commission.

And what is the difference between a "study session" of the planning commission, and a "study conference" of the board of supervisors?

The Brown Act is explicit. District Attorney Collins cannot rule otherwise.

What They Say In Reply to Delinquency

Each day, with almost monotonous regularity, newspapers and broadcasters report new waves of vandalism, teenagers' brawls, arrests of young criminals and a hundred other misdemeanors attributable to that nemesis of modern society—juvenile delinquency.

The incidents are so frequent that the very term, juvenile delinquency, becomes almost a cliché, without real significance to people until they or their children are affected.

But when a parent is ordered to appear before the juvenile authorities with his child, or when that child is laid up in a hospital through the malice of other youths, the thinking adult will furrow his brow and ponder over the question . . . why?

HE WILL WONDER whether the failing that led his boy or girl astray was his or society's. He will ask whether it is possible to prevent such occurrences in the future.

As the tensions and anxieties of today's world seem correlated to the increase in juvenile delinquency, it is obvious that additional steps must be taken to insure that children are not led into delinquency.

The question is, what should these steps be?

Your Roving Reporter, asking, "What do you think is the most effective way of combating juvenile delinquency?" got these answers:

Mrs. Arthur Slaymaker, 64 Hillcrest Drive, Orinda, felt that the answer lies in more recreational facilities for young people.

"IN ORINDA ESPECIALLY," she contended, "we need some sort of recreational place that will occupy the youngster's time."

It has often been stated that the root of juvenile delinquency is parental delinquency. This was also the feeling of James R. Reichel, 4 Rita Way, Orinda.

"The best way to combat juvenile delinquency," he stated, "is to train the parents and educate them. After all, if parents don't have regard for the law, how can we expect their children to?"

"Of course," Reichel continued, "there are more immediate problems in this question. But we have to start back with the parents on a long range program."

Youngsters are exposed to a variety of influences all through their lives that help decide what types of people they will turn out to be. One of the most common of these influences today is television.

With so much of a young person's time spent with TV or radio, J. A. Abbott, 3666 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, believed that these programs "don't help a bit."

"THEY PUT bad ideas in children's minds," he stated. "All these programs depicting crimes and fights are absolutely terrible."

Mrs. William J. Dapper, 478 Florence Drive, Lafayette, was of the belief that a youth's judgment of right and wrong "must come from within himself."

Good Outdoor Habits for Everyone!

Break your Matches
Crush your Smokes
Drown your Campfires
Be Careful with every Fire!

Remember—Only you can PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

"I don't think that recreation is the answer," was her reply. "The answer must come from within." Thomas Dobson of 215 Cleopatra Drive, Pleasant Hill, feels that a boy or girl should have evenings out, but that they should be balanced with evenings at home.

"Too much night life is bad. I've seen too many gangs of young boys hanging around in San Francisco and Oakland, and there is usually a bad apple among them, but not always."

"BUT, THE LAWS are sometimes wrong, and cause trouble. It seems like they are too strict in the minor things, often, and too lenient in the severe cases," he added.

Dobson remembers when as a boy, he once in a while "borrowed" a watermelon from someone's patch.

Parks and playgrounds are one good answer to any youth problem which might trouble an area, according to L. H. Presson, Jr., of 151 Hookston Road, Pleasant Hill.

The father of a 9 year old boy, he said, "Another difficulty is that we parents should take more interest in their problems, of course, its hard to do for some, who spend most of their time making a living."

This does not apply to five-year term insurance policies, he added.

"Dividends declared during the lapsed years will be due the veterans when he reinstates his policy, and that money can be used to defray the premium cost."

Information may be obtained at the Veterans Service office, Contra Costa County Courthouse, Martinez.

Final Rites Held For Elder Baldwin

Funeral services were held recently for John F. Baldwin, father of Congressman John F. Baldwin of Martinez. A native of Danville, and a retired rancher, he was 82 years old.

The rites were conducted at the Albert Brown Mortuary in Oakland. Burial was at the Sunset Mausoleum in Berkeley.

Letters to The Editor

DEAR EDITOR: A copy of the first edition of the Pleasant Hill Sun has just been brought to my attention. Please accept my congratulations on the inception of another publication designed to serve the particular needs of your section of Contra Costa County.

Knowing your enthusiasm for good newspapering and your concern for the welfare of all segments of the area your newspapers serve, I cannot help but feel confident that it will be a tremendous success.

I am familiar with the policies and activities of the Walnut Creek Sun, the Lafayette Sun and the Orinda Sun, and I know that they put the interests of those communities and the entire county of Contra Costa above every other consideration.

It has always been my feeling that newspapers, particularly newspapers of the type you publish, are the very backbone of democratic life. Without them, I am afraid, we would be only too prone to slip into moods of acceptance and complacency, both of which are bitter enemies of good Federal, State, County and community government.

With my very best wishes for the success of the Pleasant Hill Sun, as well as the Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek Suns, I remain,

Yours very truly,
HAROLD J. POWERS
Lieut. Governor
State of California.

Dear Editor: No Moraga rock quarry permit should be granted to rip up and bulldoze our beautiful South Orinda hills until after Freeway Industrial Properties, Inc., the applicants, can show absolutely that suitable and essential rock is located on their proposed quarry site.

The site is the hilltop above Lost Valley near the P.G.&E. substation.

After the landscape has been irreparably damaged and suitable specific rock is not found, there is no way the community can force operators to restore the original terrain.

A county ordinance should be drafted to prevent such experimenting at community expense. Proof of suitable rock should be demanded of the applicant before, not after.

Walnut Creek and Lafayette are cut up, ripped up and devastated enough—don't let this happen to the beautiful South Orinda valley.

S. WELLS
MANZANITA PARK ASSOCIATION

Dear Editor: It seems to me the fight over the water situation is getting out of hand. As anyone living in Gregory Gardens can tell, there are just a few streets that are constantly being flooded and that these streets are being ruined.

Apparently there are people who are unaware of or don't care what damage their neglectfulness causes, and as a result the majority must pay for the misuse of the water by the minority.

CHILDREN going to Strandwood School via Gladys Drive have to jump (or wade) wide streams of water, ruining shoes and getting their legs and clothing dirty. On other streets there are large "chuckholes" and ruts caused from the water running for hours on end into the streets.

Instead of paying large sums for lawyers, meters, etc., it would be much cheaper to hire a person (or persons) to check these streets.

I'm sure it wouldn't take them more than a week or two to put their "finger" on the persons responsible for all this conflict over the water.

THEY ARE the persons who should have to pay for the damage to the streets, etc.

Please, let's keep our water at a reasonable rate and keep Gregory Gardens as green and beautiful as it now is; but won't be if the water rate is raised!

Mrs. K. G. CORBETT

Snoopy gets in the act

"Well, boss, I fooled you. Here I am." It is Snoopy, the office cat, leering from behind the inter-com box.

"I really fooled you today," Snoopy gloated. "I slipped in your office before you locked your door—because today is when you write your weekly epic. Who are you going to needle this week?"

Now, Snoopy, be nice for a change. This is the first time in months that you've been here to advise me on the column. I'm not going to needle anyone. I have a story to tell about my kids.

"Oh, no, not that!" Snoopy groaned. "Don't you know that every papa in Central Contra Costa County has dozens of 'Bright Sayings and Stories by Brilliant Children'?"

Yes, Snoopy, I know. But that is one of the advantages of editing a newspaper—you can print a story once in awhile about your own kids.

Attention: Good Fairy

Well, last Friday night I announced to the three-kids that I had a tooth pulled. I suggested that the Bunny Rabbit or Good Fairy should leave some money under my pillow in exchange for the tooth—as happens with their teeth. We all thought it a fine joke.

You've already guessed the ending. Yes, when I went to bed, I found an envelope with nine pennies under the pillow. It wasn't the Bunny Rabbit or the Good Fairy. It was from my middle-sized bear, Dan, with a note attached.

"You know, boss," Snoopy snapped, "kid stories are never as funny in print as when they first happen."

Thanks for nothing, Snoopy. But to show you my heart is in the right place, this column will print the first kids' story that someone sends in. I'll show you The Sun is democratic.

Teen-age testimonials

"By the way, boss, how's the deal coming on giving teen-agers free work wanted ads in the classified columns?" Snoopy asked.

It's going so well that we've extended the offer through August 17. And here are some office memos on the subject:

"We received a very nice call from Mrs. Fibush. Her son, Chuck, 14, ran a free ad and the response was terrific. He was offered two part-time and one permanent job. He took the regular job and is making $100 a month."

"Mrs. Decker called to say that her son, Peter, ran a free ad and Mrs. Decker is very pleased. She had little faith that he would get a job, but now he has two jobs, both paying $1 an hour. She is very grateful for giving the teen-agers this opportunity."

News Editor Dick Osborn just told me that Mrs. Tom Hazlett stopped him on the street the other day to thank for the free work wanted ads. She said that one son found a full-time job and others in the family were working part time.

I believe that our teen-agers are the "forgotten children" of our community. They need recreation, programs, work—all year around. I hope next summer that some of our service clubs will work with The Sun in establishing a regular teen-age employment bureau. It is most worthwhile.

Now, Snoopy, you'd better beat it before I put in a classified ad—"Cat, to give to good home."

Mystery Thriller To Open in S.F.

Mail orders are now being received at the Alcazar Theatre in San Francisco for the Agatha Christie mystery thriller "Witness for the Prosecution," which starts a limited engagement Monday, August 6, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

This extraordinary mystery thriller has broken records ever since it left Agatha Christie's typewriter about three years ago. It opened in Edinburgh and then moved to London to capacity grosses.

Two years ago it opened on Broadway and became an instantaneous success.

The stars of the Gilbert Miller production include Francis L. Sullivan and Patricia Jessel.

All 'Dolled Up' are Gals, In Local Show for Graders

Doll Show enthusiasts flocked by the hundreds to four Walnut Creek schools last Friday to participate in or watch the Sixth Annual Doll Show sponsored by the Professional and Business Women's Club in cooperation with the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission.

Dolls held the floor, but entertainment, movies and refreshments added to the pleasure of the contestants, guests and mothers.

BOYS AND GIRLS entered dolls and animal dolls in as many as 15 classifications.

The top three winners of each classification at the new Walnut Creek School, where Pat Carney is Playground Supervisor, are listed with first place winner first:

Most unusual, Diane Doherty, Elaine Benjamin; foreign dolls, Barbara Muratore, Carol Prosser; best baby doll, Martha Neighbor, Robin Giffel, Sandy Beck; bride doll attendant, Jo Ann Stramaglia, Jo Ann Norton, Jo Ann Dirkham; best animal, Karen Kozak, Chris Mathews, Karen Varner.

Annuals Can Solve Color Problems in Local Gardens

By THE GARDENER
Looking for a way to get more effective mass color effects in your garden? ... do you need colorful edgings on some beds? ... are you going to be short of cut flowers this summer? ... have you found spots you need to fill in? The answer to these and many other garden problems is ANNUALS.

Besides the fact that annuals grow easily and quickly from seed and are low in cost, many of them are tops for providing picture-type mass color effects and many, if the blooms are cut regularly, offer a long blooming season of color and fragrance.

Easiest annuals to grow under ordinary garden conditions are: Sweet alyssum, dwarf marigolds and portulaca for edgings; cosmos, ornamental sunflower, zinnias and hollyhocks for background; bachelor button, Bells of Ireland, calendulas, calliopsis, celosia, annual chrysanthemums, nasturtiums and petunias for cut flowers.

Other popular annuals are California poppies, annual candytuft, four o'clock, snow-on-the-mountain, sweet peas, stock, phlox, pinks, snapdragons, and larkspur.

If, for some reason, you were late in getting your annuals in this year, you can still make it.

There are over 25 different annuals that can be planted as late as June and July, and some, like calendulas, that are really at their best if planted in mid-summer so plants are in full bloom during the cooler months.

What's more, annuals are easy to care for if you follow a few simple rules. Remember that thorough watering twice a week is better than light sprinkling daily.

As soon as annuals start to get their growth, give them a monthly feeding of a balanced liquid fertilizer.

So, if your garden doesn't have enough mass color, if you need more bedders, more edgers, or more tall background, remember there are annuals you can still plant — and still get beautiful blooms this year!

Toastmasters Hear of Sanitary District Election
Twenty-eight members of Diablo Toastmasters Club 598 present at the meeting at the Las Palmas Hotel, July 19, received a stirring message from one of six veteran Toastmasters, Frank Curtis of Orinda. He gave a seven minute speech on the proposed Contra Costa Sanitary District.

Curtis came equipped with visual aids showing in detail the vast area included in the measure to be voted on August 7.

GIVING a factual report on the overall project, he delivered a dramatic speech with use of statistics.

The Diablo Toastmasters Club plans a series of similar speeches and discussions, pro and con, on current events with particular emphasis on County and City Government, in addition to the national, state and county elections.

Ray Brashers of Walnut Creek in competition with three other speakers was presented with the Speakers Cup for the best speech of the evening—"Let the Stars Get in Your Eyes"—at the conclusion of the program.

Frank Curtis, having completed Toastmasters basic training was not eligible to compete.

BILL WILLIAMSON, club president, presided over a meeting yesterday. Assisting the chairman in the conduct of the program were Bert Bergesen, Walnut Creek, table topic chairman.

Occupying the speakers rostrum this Thursday were Bob Cahill of Walnut Creek; Hal Moreno of Pleasant Hill, and Glen Vergne of Concord.

Roger Jernigan of Walnut Creek and immediate past president of the Diablo Toastmasters Club has been appointed as the assistant governor for Region C of District 4 Toastmasters Clubs.

Region C includes Oakland, Berkeley, Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Richmond.

Jernigan was also designated chairman of a committee to select an appropriate place in the East Bay for the annual Toastmasters District Convention to be held in early 1957.

President Williamson announced that as a public service to Boy Scouts in the area Diablo Toastmasters will assist any Boy Scout in achieving his Public Speaking merit badge.

PARENTS CONCERNED should contact any toastmaster or president Bill at: VERNON 7-4149.

However, he announced this appointment really wasn't necessary in that visitors are always welcome at meetings and that it has been a practice of long standing for TM Clubs to assist the Boy Scouts.

Diablo Toastmasters also maintains a Speakers Bureau for the purpose of responding to civic duty and to be of service to the community.

Having a Ball' Cry AFS Students

"Having the most terrific time of my life" and "wonderful impression of these kids ... all tops in every real way ... real pleasure and honor to be among them" reposed Acalanes High School representatives now in Europe on the American Field Service Exchange Student Summer Program.

Smed, son of the L. B. Ambler of El Toyonal and Allen, son of the Marshall Shapiros of La Vuelta.

Expected for the coming school term are students from Greece, Denmark and Germany. Welcoming foreign students entitles the school from one to four summer scholarships depending upon the number of homes found in Europe, and whether they can take a boy or a girl.

"The 'neatest' family in all France," the Anglaret of Lyon, are Smed's French family. Marc describes Horst Adams and his folks as "just what I need."

himself "the luckiest ASFer of all" as he settles down in their beautiful home with its "circular swimming pool" in Bochum, Germany.

Both families contain one member who speaks some English but the boys must speak French and German, respectively, if they are to carry out their assignment to win the hearts and admiration of Europeans for America and her youth.

Smed wryly comments "How can you make friends and influence people without words."

Pollution Group
Members of a special advisory council to the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District are Dr. H. L. Blum, Contra Costa Health Officer, E. Spencer Bodine, manager of Shell Chemical plant, and Jack Bruhl, president of the CIO Council, Contra Costa County.

The council was asked to do

$36,700 Netted in County Successful Cancer Drive
Contra Costa County has exceeded the $35,000 quota set by the American Cancer Society for its spring fund campaign, according to Richard D. Sanders of Pittsburg, president of the county branch.

Sanders said in a recent board meeting that $36,720 had been collected, and more is forthcoming.

Local quotas were exceeded in Orinda, Walnut Creek, Kensington, and the Concord areas.

Sanders expressed appreciation for the work of five thousand volunteers in the 1956 drive to raise funds for the research, educational and community service programs of the county organization.

A total of $4,309.19 was collected in Orinda, according to Mrs. Kenneth R. Enwick, residential chairman. The local goal was set

Your Garden Chrysanthemums Give Variety of Sizes, Colors

By THE GARDENER
THERE IS NO LATE summer and fall flower that affords such a wide range of size, color, type, height and blooming period as the chrysanthemum.

And, what is more, few flowers respond to care more than the chrysanthemum.

For these reasons the perennial chrysanthemum is one of the most satisfying garden flowers to cultivate.

IF THE aforesaid advantages aren't enough, the chrysanthemum affords another important advantage in favor of its culture: it can be used in a wide variety of plantings throughout the garden, patio and home—in window boxes and pots, garden borders, espaliered in cut flower bouquets.

General culture requirements of the chrysanthemum are not exacting.

Into the planting soil, work manure or peat moss, superphosphate and commercial fertilizer.

PLANT WHERE there's sun two-thirds of the day. (There should be afternoon shade in hot areas.)

Set the plants away from other flowers and shrubs that might compete for soil nutrients. Water thoroughly at regular intervals.

Apply fertilizer if the foliage loses its dark green colors, but do not fertilize later than two weeks or so before flowering time, as nitrogen delays flowering and during that period reduces color intensity.

WITH THE PROPER instructions, which your nurseryman can supply, you can grow extra large flowers by pinching, or you can cascade certain types of chrysanthemums and grow them on supports, espaliered against a fence or falling over a wall.

The bloom colors from which you can choose are magnificent: yellows, reds, pinks, lavenders, purples, whites, bronze and several blends of these colors.

Reward yourself with gardening satisfaction by planting some chrysanthemum seedlings now.

Youth Agency is Seeking Volunteer
Available are volunteer jobs with a youth agency for a resident of the Orinda area and of the Alamo-Danville area.

Acting as an "information center" for fellow residents is involved.

More information may be obtained by phoning YE 4-0424, Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek Area, 1640 Main Street.

The Bureau is now on a summer schedule and is open from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Telephone messages are received at all times by a telephone answering service.

"as much help as possible" before October 1, the effective date for legal establishment of the six-county governmental agency, in a recent meeting.

Swim, Cuisine Will Head Art Center Affair Sunday

Swimming will be the order of the day Sunday when members of the Valley Art Center and their friends gather at the home of Mrs. Harold Powell, 4139 Los Arabis Drive, Lafayette, for brunch at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Arthur Wagstaff, food chairman, promises a substantial meal for active swimmers. Members of the committee include Mesdames A. M. deGrassi, Wellington Ray, Orinda; Glen Max, George Hansen, James Hull, A. M. Jacobsen, Lafayette; and Ed Larmer, Robert Clough, Peter Howard and James Hull, Walnut Creek.

J. Gordon Ainsworth and Hal Babbitt, Orinda, head the male contingent of the refreshment committee and will be assisted by Robert Clough, Walnut Creek and Preston Hunt, San Francisco.

Michael Czaja and James Hull assumed roles of carpenter and electrician this week to prepare for expeditious serving of food. Czaja, president of the organization, will also arrange the exhibit of garden mosaics designed by Bella Feldman, Berkeley sculptress, selected specially for this event.

Mrs. Feldman is scheduled to start a class in mosaics at the Peter Howard home, 2385 Walnut

CUTTING THE CAKE had a double significance for Patricia Tunniff as she wed Milton Van Slyke last week. Pat also was celebrating her birthday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Tunniff, of Orinda. Milton is from Caldwell, Idaho. The couple is currently honeymooning in Carmel.

Social Fun Is Agenda In Summer

The Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its summer picnic today at the Brazilian Room in Tilden Regional Park.

The affair is social, prepared for the enjoyment of members and their husbands. It will feature a buffet supper to be served at 7 p.m. followed by an unusual program featuring members of the organization, and will conclude with social dancing.

MRS. LEONARD Lasnik is picnic chairman. Serving on her committee are Mrs. Oscar Anderson, program; Mrs. Robert Grunder, food and beverage; and Mrs. D. O. Hagan, decorations.

The Annual Summer Conference, co-sponsored by the Contra Costa Branches of the American Association of University Women, will have as its theme, "Child Welfare."

The conference will feature a group of outstanding experts in child welfare as speakers, and will take place August 8, on the east campus of Contra Costa Junior College.

The Summer Conference is a yearly study project arranged by the local branches of the American Association of University Women.

IT REFLECTS THE concern and interest of their organization in educational, legislative and social problems at both national and local levels.

The committee in charge of the conference met July 18 at the home of Mrs. D. S. Metcalf, Concord.

Present were Mrs. Frances Harbrecht representing the hostess branch of Martinez; Mrs. H. E. Crain and Mrs. Richard Courtney, Concord; Mrs. John Gillan and Mrs. James Buckley, Walnut Creek; Mrs. E. P. Bennett, Antioch and Mrs. E. A. Daogleish, Richmond.

When Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Courtwright of 938 Pleasant Hill Road returned from a week end tour of the H. T. Wings of Alameda at their year round home in Jacksonville, they were greeted with the news that they were now a great-aunt and great-uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald (Dorothy Ade) Ewing of Exeter, California, had a son born over the week end weighing 7 pounds, 4 ounces.

The senior Leonard C. Courtwright's home at Jo Ann Court in Walnut Creek.

Meadow Pool Now Open For Use of Members

Members of the 250 families who formed Meadow Pool, Inc. have over a year ago, had their first chance to swim in their new $70,000 pool last Sunday.

Although landscaping and paving of the parking area has not been completed, the pool is ready for use, according to Frank Leibold, president of the non-profit corporation.

Volunteers, representing each of the families, will continue their work on completion of the landscaping and paving each Saturday and Sunday mornings. Volunteers have done all of the work on the project, located at Heather Lane and Valley Drive, with the exception of the pool and filter system and grading and paving the parking lot.

An aquatic show is planned for a grand opening in September, according to Leibold. Carl Drew is lifeguard at the pool and will give swimming lessons from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., except on Saturdays and Sundays when it will open at noon.

The volunteer construction work has been supervised by Rod Jenks. Architect for the project was Ed Hicks.

Miss Niessen Changes Name to Mrs. Charles White

A honeymoon in Santa Cruz followed the wedding of Maxine Marian Niessen and Airman Third Class Charles F. White, both of Walnut Creek parents. Their home will be near Roswell, N.M., where the young man is stationed at Walker Air Base.

The solemn ceremonies were held at the Little Chapel of the Flowers in Sarnap last week, under the direction of the Rev. James Upshaw.

MAXINE'S MOTHER is Mrs. Susie Niessen of 24 Iris Street. Airman White's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Irving White of 2579 Lucy Lane, Walnut Creek. Maid of honor was Eva Kroeker of Reedley and bridesmaid was Carol E. White of San Francisco, sister of the bride.

Best man was Alan White of Oakland, and usher was Howard Lambert of Berkeley.

A garden reception was held at the White home afterwards. THE NEW MRS. White was employed at the Refinery's Credit Association of Contra Costa County after graduation from Immanuel Academy in Reedley with the class of '55.

Mr. White graduated with the '55 class of Las Lomas High School, and attended the East Contra Costa Junior College for one semester before enlisting in the United States Air Force.

200 Families Apply for Country Club Membership

With organization of the new Moraga Valley Country Club just started, more than 200 families already have filled out applications for membership, the directors announced today.

In advising early action by all those considering joining this non-profit organization, Merle Brown, one of the directors, said:

"Last weekend literally scores flocked to the site of the new club at Carroll Ranch near Rheem Center in Moraga. Others have contacted the various directors, or telephoned the club at DRake 6-8432 for application blanks and details.

"Architects now are working on plans for the fine new clubhouse that will contain banquet rooms as well as complete facilities for members. The old clubhouse at Carroll Ranch will be refurbished, equipped with a milk bar and turned over to teen-age activities.

"Also scheduled, in addition to the present large swimming pool, are two new pools, one a wader for small fry, A 'pitch-and-putt' golf course, tennis courts and bowling greens also are slated, with actual opening of the club expected by next spring," Brown concluded.

The initial directors of the club are: Joseph Longacre, president; George Dodge, vice-president; Robeson Smith, secretary; Frank Shirey, treasurer; Edgar Stewart, Merle Brown, Tom Carroll, Lou E. Mancini, who will manage this new club, and Gordon Heche, who will be assistant manager.

Memberships are non-assessable and non-proprietary, initially set low at $100, plus tax. A $10 registration deposit is payable at time of application. Dues will be $12.50 a month, but will not go into effect until facilities are available.

Orinda Girl Wed in Home

The Spring Court, Orinda, home of Miss Geraldine Gray served as the setting for her recent marriage to Howard Lester.

With the Rev. Laurence L. Cross of Berkeley officiating at the afternoon home ceremony, the bride was given in marriage by her father, Nathan C. Gray. An alumna of College of the Pacific, Geraldine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Christensen of Mission San Jose.

The bridegroom is the son of James Lester of Los Angeles and Mrs. Lester of Berkeley.

For her wedding and the reception which followed in the Gray residence, the bride selected a gown of applied lace over net, and wore a pearl tiara.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Vaughan Sobajian of Oakland was gowning in a robin's egg blue dress. Bridesmaids Miss Louise Jones and Miss Eleanor Kaptenberg, both of Berkeley, wore dresses of canary yellow.

Both carried forget-me-nots and roses. Dressed in pale pink was the flower girl, Lynn Travers, who carried a white basket filled with roses.

The groom asked Vaughan Sobajian to perform best man duties. Ushers were Frank Travers and Roy Montwill.

The couple will reside in Oakland following their Carmel honeymoon.

Country Club Offers Oasis

On one of the Valley's typical summer days Meadowbrook Golf Club in Reliez Valley offered an oasis during its Pastel Luncheon Bridge Tuesday.

Table prizes of pastel blooming primrose plants maintained the motif of soft coloring used in decorating the clubhouse for the party.

After a leisure hour at the punch bowl, approximately 40 guests shared a buffet luncheon of sliced turkey, baked ham, potato salad, tossed greens, herring, strawberry parfait slices and coffee.

After their afternoon bridge games, several guests responded to the invitation of the swimming pool and changed for a swim.

Included by the members of Meadowbrook in their gathering were several outside guests, among whom were Mrs. Jack Pickett, Mrs. William Straus, Mrs. Bernard Trimpe of Lafayette; Mrs. Warren French, Mrs.

Mrs. Kelley Feted At Buffet Lunch

Mrs. Edward Kelly of West Cliff Lane, Walnut Creek, was recently honored at a buffet luncheon held at the home of Mrs. William Earl of Ellene Drive, Pleasant Hill.

The farewell surprise luncheon was held on the Earls' patio, and the table was decorated with 100-year-old antique punch bowl, year-old antique punch bowl, and a corsage and gift of lingerie by the guests.

Janet Greene To Be Bride of J. C. Parker

Mr. and Mrs. Max Greene of 2133 Youngs Court, Walnut Creek, announced that their daughter, Miss Janet Greene, had become the bride of John Carlyle C. Parker at a ceremony held in Logan Temple in Utah.

The bride wore a white floor-length satin gown with a lace overskirt, trimmed with pearls and a matching pearl cap held her fingertip veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and a white orchid in the center. She wore the traditional "something new," "something old" and the blue garter.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Carol Staffer, the bride's sister, of Walnut Creek, who wore a pink crystalline ballerina length dress, white accessories and lilac orchid.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Greene, wore a blue lace street-length dress, white accessories and white and lilac orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a dusty pink lace ensemble, white accessories and a white orchid.

Best man was Richard Baer of Berkeley, a classmate of the groom's.

The young couple spent their honeymoon in Pleasant Hill.

The bride is a 1951 graduate of Alacanes High School, graduated in June at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, where she majored in voice, and plans to teach voice and music. She is affiliated with Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music sorority, and has appeared in local concerts in the Bay Area.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi C. Parker of Roy, Utah, filled a full time mission for the Church of Latter Day Saints in the New England States, served two years in the U.S. Army, and attended BYU in Provo as a history major, and plans to attend the University of California for graduate work.

A reception for the newlyweds was held by the Walnut Creek Chapel of the Latter Day Saints on Overlook Drive with 200 guests attending. Mrs. Kenneth Ewing made the five tiered cake which was decorated with doves, bells and flowers.

Master of ceremonies was Robert Larsen of Happy Valley; soloist was Mrs. Ruth Brown of Walnut Creek, who sang "Embraceable You" and was accompanied by Mrs. Lavonne Perkins. The bride's brother, Ronald Greer, played a piano solo "O Promise Me."

Meadowbrook Sets Cocktail Party for Aug. 4

The weekend of August 4 will see a superabundance of activity at Meadowbrook Golf Club in Reliez Valley. Still developing, the new country club is responding to inquiries about membership requirements and privileges with a membership reception from 6 to 8 the evening of August 4.

Mrs. Arthur E. Bell of Lafayette, in charge of invitations, reports that she has sent out over 200 bids to the affair in addition to the golf club's own roster. The guest list was drawn entirely from specific inquiries by prospective members and recommendations of present members of Meadowbrook.

Along with the complimentary service of cocktails a parade of appetizers is being marshalled by Mrs. Donald Hupman of Concord to sustain the large party expected.

Dale Ridson of Lafayette is serving as general chairman coordinating the forces of entertainment for Meadowbrook's cocktail hour.

Two standing committees, social affairs and membership, are collaborating on the event which will be the first formal acknowledgement of the cordial interest of the East Bay in the pioneering of this newest 18 hole golf and country club.

Present members are joining as a whole, however, into the task of presenting the facilities and esprit de corps of their "fraternity."

In the "Pro" shop the facilities committee will exhibit preliminary and concluded drawings concerned with the future golf course, clubhouse facilities and grounds' activities. As each day passes and developments occur, officials of the club will provide additional information in the shop in answer to member inquiries regarding their club's ultimate goals and possibilities.

Couple View Golden Fete

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kunkel and their four sons of 1695 Barnett Circle, Pleasant Hill, attended a reception on Friday held at the Contra City Club celebrating the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Kimball of El Cerrito.

Parents of Mrs. Kunkel, the Kimballs were married July 19, 1906, in Alberta, Canada, were natives of Utah, and have resided in California for the past 25 years.

The Kunkel family, which included a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Kunkel of Walnut Creek, and sons, James Paul, Don L., and David Cley (C. Z.) Senter and his sister, Mrs. Betty Smith, both of Gregory Gardens; Mr. and Mrs. George Klein of Walnut Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brooks of Pleasant Hill, were among the more than 200 guests attending the reception.

President Glenn W. Harmon of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, Berkeley Stake, was main speaker.

The Kimballs' three children, Mrs. Kunkel, James F. Kimball of Oakland, and Mrs. M. D. Smith of Oakland, gave their mother a bronze candelabra, and their father a gold-plated nameplate for their door and a gold cigarette box. Mrs. Kimball gave her husband a Cadillac tied in a gold sash ribbon with signs on it reading "Just Married—50 Years Ago."

Invitations to the affair were sent to over 200 of the couple's friends in this area and throughout the United States and Canada. A buffet supper was served, followed by a musical program and Harmon talked on marriage.

Highlight of the evening's festivities was the cutting of the five-tiered wedding cake trimmed with a garland of gold roses.

Orinda Bride Wed in North

The University Lutheran Church in Seattle was the setting of the recent wedding of Geraldine Louise Comerford to Dr. Joseph C. Grillo of Seattle.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Comerford of Van Tassel Lane, Orinda, flew to Seattle for the nuptials, along with the bride's sister, Denise, who served in their sister's bridal entourage as maid of honor and junior bridesmaid respectively.

The Orinda girl, who attended Whitman College at Walla Walla and the University of Washington, wore a white crystalline princess-style gown in ballerina length and a short illusion veil for the ceremony.

Her attendants, in pink nylon dotted swiss, carried pink daisy parasols.

The bridegroom attended the Washington Dental College.

After completion of his Army duty, the couple, currently vacationing here with the bride's parents, will make their home in Seattle.

Jack Wright Takes Bride

Setting up housekeeping in Lafayette after their wedding and honeymoon trip are Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Wright.

The new husband is the son of Mrs. Joe Wright of Walnut Creek, and she is the former Helen Kenyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kenyon of Oakland.

The rites were conducted by the Rev. H. W. Van Delinder at the Danville Community Presbyterian Church.

Maid of honor was Eleanor Henderson, cousin of the bride, and best man was Ed Marsh of Walnut Creek.

Virginia Mitchell Becomes Bride Of Darrell Adams

At home to their friends in Winton near Merced, are the new bride, Mrs. Virginia Mitchell Adams, and her husband, Mr. Darrell Adams.

The former Miss Virginia Adams of Danville, and Darrell Adams of Pleasant Hill exchanged wedding vows June 30 at St. Michael's and All Angels Episcopal Church in Concord with Dr. Philip Dauton officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with large bouquets of stock, snapdragons and shasta daisies.

The bride wore a white nylon lace over net taffeta ballerina length dress with a fitted bodice and long torso. A crown held her short veil in place, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and Cecil Breuner rosebuds, and she was escorted down the aisle by her father.

Mrs. Gary Demits, the bride's sister and also a June bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink sheer cotton ballerina length dress with a round neckline and low waist; she wore pale blue carnations in her hair and carried a nosegay of pale blue carnations.

Diane Adams, as sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and chose a pale green nylon dress with a long torso and a full skirt. The neckline was square in front coming to a V in the back with a ribbon streamer. Elaine Adams, another sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid.

Gary Demits was best man for his brother-in-law, and usher duties were performed by Dave Anderson, friend of the bridegroom, who is in the Air Force, and Richard Clements of Pleasant Hill, uncle of the groom.

The bride, a daughter of Ned Mitchell of Danville, is a June graduate of San Ramon Valley Union High School, was a member of the G.A.A. and was on the school paper and yearbook staff.

The bride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Adams of 1561 Terry Way, Pleasant Hill, is a 1955 graduate of Pleasant Hill High. He was advertising manager for the school's yearbook and belonged to a car club. In June 1955 he joined the Air Force and trained at Camp Parks. He specialized in electronics training, and is now stationed at Castle Air Force Base near Merced.

The newlyweds cut a four-tiered wedding cake at the reception held in the social hall of the church following the ceremony.

The couple honeymooned at Yosemite National Park, and visited in Pleasant Hill with the bridegroom's parents before leaving for Winton.

Alamo Couple Are Married

Recently married and now living in Berkeley are the former Miss Sharon Williams of Alamo, and her bridegroom, Robert G. Pizzagani of Alamo, who exchanged vows in the Danville Community Presbyterian Church.

Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney B. Williams Jr., of Alamo and Mr. and Mrs. Aldo L. Pizzagani of Alamo.

Aug. 7 Date Set for Rites

As the August 4 marriage date for Joan Linsley and Michael McFarlane approaches, the pace of social activities for the young couple is accelerated.

With Joan, of Lafayette, and Mike, a Walnut Creek product, pointing toward the rites in the Claiborne Hill Chapel of the Berkeley Baptist Divinity School in Berkeley, the bride-to-be was honored at a luncheon party last Saturday given by two of her prospective attendants, Carol Boyer and Jenette Quinlin.

The affair was held at Carol's home in Crockett. Feminine friends of the couple will travel to Oakland next Friday for the spinster's luncheon hosted by Joan's cousin, Mrs. Krist Gudason.

The Lafayette home of Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Boevers and attendants Peggy Boevers will be the setting that evening for the rehearsal dinner. Joan is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earle Gorton Linsley, 1009 Willow Drive, Lafayette, while Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. McFarlane of 2440 Tice Valley Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Both are graduates of Alacanes High School, and the prospective groom is currently stationed at McClellan Air Force Base as a member of the U. S. Air Force. The Sierra Nevadas will be the honeymoon destination.

Europe Tour Completed By Eversons

A five-week trip thorough Europe was recently completed by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Everson of 1133 Thompson Road, Lafayette, and four years in Orinda.

They were flown by plane from San Francisco to London, then on to Paris and Switzerland, where they stayed two weeks.

Next stop was Venice, Italy, and then they went by boat down the Rhine. The flight home began from Amsterdam.

A highlight was their stop at Bruges, Belgium, built in the 1100's, and known as the Little Venice. It is near Brussels.

In London, Everson visited his family for a week. They were able to record their trip with a motion picture camera.

The Eversons are parents of Warren Everson, who recently was married to the former Georgia Clark of Klamath Falls, Ore. The couple live in San Jose.

The newlyweds both graduated from San Jose State College. Warren was a student at Alacanes High School.

Mrs. Stuparich To Head Sorority

The National Council of Kappa Delta sorority announces the appointment of Mrs. Melvin Stuparich, 1083 Rahara Drive, Lafayette, to serve as the Kappa South Province President.

In this capacity, Mrs. Stuparich will supervise the activities of the college chapters at the University of California, University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles, San Jose State College, San Diego State College, and Arizona State College.

Benicia Takes Walnut Creek Tourney

Trophy to Invitational Is Retained

The Benicia Bombers, defending champions at the Walnut Creek Invitational Tournament, proved their diamond superiority once again as they repeated as trophy winners with a 10-inning victory in the finals last Saturday.

The Bombers finally blasted through the defenses of the Catalina Builders and eked out a 4-3 win.

IN OPENING NIGHT'S play of the tourney, Garrows Furniture of Antioch copped a 5-2 win over Howdy Chevrolet and Buick of Livermore. In the evening's second contest, Bud's Auto of Brentwood and Berkeley Buick played a tight game, with the Brentwood club copping the decision, 2-1.

The next night found a fracas going nine innings when Radiation Lab and Concord Electric were tied up with a run apiece at the end of the regulation seven frames.

The Livermore team scored a run in the ninth on a base on balls to Dick Tucker, who went to second on a wild pitch, went to third on a deep fly to center and then scored on a fly to left.

THIS PROVED to be the game, as Concord went down in order in their time at bat.

The second game that night saw another 2-1 game go the regular route as the Catalina Builders began their quest for the title with a win over Freeman Pavers of Palo Alto.

On Wednesday, July 18, Rheem Center cranked Pacific Appliances of Richmond 7-1, with Big Ed Bill hurling five-hit ball as he whiffed 11. The second game found the Bombers surging to the top with a narrow 4-3 win over the Redwood City Merchants.

IN THE SECOND round of play, Bud's Auto nicked Garrows 9-6 in the first game Thursday, while in the ensuing encounter Catalina Homes of Pittsburg nailed the Livermore Research Lab, 5-3.

Last Friday, the Bombers found the range and came through with a 4-2 win over Rheem Center.

In the next game Friday the Builders were victorious again as they topped Bud's of Brentwood, 3-2.

Saturday was the big day of play as Rheem Center came through with a 1-0 shutout over Bud's to cop the consolation prize.

IN THE BIG GAME for the championship, the Benicia aggregation and the Builders crossed bats for 10 classic innings before the Bombers were able to force in the winning run.

Benicia scored a lone tally in the first and another in the second to take a 2-0 lead. It was two apiece when Catalina chalked up a run in the third and another in the fourth.

That's the way it stayed until the 10th, when Benicia scored a pair of runs in the top half of the inning. Catalina came back with a tally of their own, but their rally fell short and the contest ended 4-3.

RC Swim Class Slate Expanded

The Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross announces an expansion of its free swimming and life saving classes at the Acalanes High School Pool.

The second session, originally scheduled for the Alamo, Danville, Moraga, San Ramon, Orinda and Pleasant Hill school districts, will now be open to all children in the Mt. Diablo Chapter, including Lafayette and Walnut Creek school districts.

Children must be 4 feet tall and have finished the first grade in school.

Registration is at the pool before class time. Children must have parents' consent.

Following is the class schedule:

8:30 to 10:30 Junior Life Saving (class closed).
8:30 to 10:30 Junior and Senior Life Saving (first session).
10:00 to 10:30—Beginners.
10:30 to 11:00—Swimmers.
11:00 to 11:30—Beginners.
11:00 to 11:30—Non-Swimmers.
11:30 to 12:00—Intermediates.
11:30 to 12:00—Non-Swimmers.
12:00 to 12:30—Intermediates.
12:00 to 12:30—Adults (all stages).

Third session is from August 7 through August 18.

PHers to Attend Safety Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. John Scaglione and son, Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shreve and sons, Tommy and Douglas, of Pleasant Hill will be among the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Otis Cobb at their Woodbridge Farm in Martinez this weekend.

The barbecue and informal get-together is being held by the Contra Costa Safety Council, of which Dr. Cobb is president.

Special guests will include Judge William J. McGuiness, past president of the East Bay Chapter of the National Safety Council; Assemblyman Donald Doyle, general chairman of the fund campaign; and Earl F. Campbell, managing director of the California Traffic Safety Foundation.

Diamond Chatter...

Thompson Electric Is Ahead in Tight Race

By MEL ALAMANO

The Coast League Gang have a tight race going and it's anybody's league right now. Thompson Electric is leading and three teams are breathing right down their necks!

This group comprises the youngest boys and they play hard and try to give their best. The coaching job is tough as some have never played any baseball before.

With 15 boys to play it's a job to play all the boys as much as possible. These fellows deserve a pat on the back as this group is the hardest of all leagues to coach.

Diamonds haven't been in the best condition at some places and yet no complaints have been heard.

The little guys in this league will be real prospects next year. Steve Miles, Rich Stephenson, Pete Breuleux, Mark Schimbor, the Cotlow boys and others will be playing in the bigger leagues next year and will give a real account of themselves.

These future stars try so hard and if we realize how young some are you can understand why pitchers tire and their long throws go haywire.

Don't knock the little guys—encourage them. Some people feel ages and other things in general should be considered next year. Maybe so, but it's been fun and at least it has given the boys something to keep them busy most of the summer.

No one expected 16 teams, otherwise two leagues would have been formed. No place in this country have so many boys played in one area or size without picking only the best. Remember, the kids are still green at this game, but wait another year and this area will have its share of real ball players.

Encourage and support them. And now, here are the standings:

COAST LEAGUE

Softball Teams Resume Play; Head for Finals

PLAY IN THE Walnut Creek Softball League was resumed Tuesday and will continue until August 7, when Middleton and Marchi play Hoffmans Furniture in the league finals at Martinez.

Tonight's action finds Rheem Center playing Serpa Pontiac-Buick at Walnut Creek at 9, while Hoffman Furniture and Middleton and Marchi tangle at Martinez, with play beginning at 8:45.

Next Monday, Rheem faces Kings at Walnut Creek at 9 p.m., with Middleton and Marchi rounding out the night's play at Martinez at 8:45 as they meet Serpa Pontiac-Buick.

On Tuesday its Rheem vs. Kings at Walnut Creek at 9 p.m., with Middleton and Marchi vs. Serpa holding the spotlight in an 8:45 game at Martinez.

Wednesday's softball fare finds Contra Costa Sand and Gravel testing Middleton and Marchi at Walnut Creek at 9 p.m. Hoffman will vie with Serpa at Martinez.

City School of Music 8, Van Horn 6. Jack Carman pitched and hit C. S. to win.

Dave Schatz, Al Lazzaretti and gang run up to help win for the Insurers. Steve Davis pitched good ball for Speedway.

Sports & Games 8, Al Pereira 5. Al Pereira gave S & G bad scare and lose out in fifth inning on some bad breaks. A. Guichard and Hal Stephenson star for the Excavators. Stu Fox's homer in first inning drove in 3 runs.

To Alamano only player to get two hits. Tom Strain picked two hit ball and winning pitcher. Tom fanned 13.

Orinda Juniors Continue Play

With three weeks of play behind them, coach Don Texdahl's Texdahl and Johnson nine and skipper Bill Rowe's Orinda Motors aggregation found themselves roosting atop the standings in the Third and Fourth Grade Division.

It was inevitable that these two midsize giants should clash. They did! The result: Orinda Motors came out on top by a score of 14-1.

Both coaches could attribute part of their success to youngsters who bear the same last name as they—the mentors sons, Dave Texdahl and Billy Rowe Jr.

Coach Texdahl commends the fine spirit and enthusiastic play of his entire team and points out the following boys whose big bats and alert defensive play have been especially noticeable: Pete Boyle, Mike Thurlow, Dick "Bird" Brown, Bill Hewitt, Eric Carter, Larry Sommers and, of course, Dave Texdahl.

Coach Rowe also attributes his team's success to the effort and fine spirit of each member of the squad. Hap Parks, Jack McClure, Steve Thaman, John Brown, Greg Dunn and Bill Rowe Jr. deserve special attention for most outstanding play, according to Rowe.

Following are the 7th and 8th grade standings:

	W	L
Orinda Corpmen	5	1
Sproule-Reitz	5	2
Casa Orinda	4	2
First Savings	3	3
Tommie Horton Cleaners	1	5
Mobilgas	0	6

HOME OF PRESIDENT

Two miles north of Red Bluff stands the adobe home of the California Republic's first and only president, General William B. Ide.

Youth Teams Vie As Play Enters Final Two Weeks

Two weeks of play remain in the Lafayette Youth Baseball League, but end-of-the-season teething is already catching on throughout the league.

Recent games have proved highly significant as the teams in both the Major and Minor loops race toward the wire.

In Major League play, Mattson Field was the setting for a re-sounding 9-1 Sports and Games victory over Lafayette Pharmacy on July 18. The next night it was Sun Valley Lumber that stepped into the spotlight with a 7-0 shut-out over Kings Market.

Gaston's Cleaners outdid the Lumberers efforts the next evening, however, as they shut out the Jacuzzi Hydrotherapy nine, 9-0.

The Furniture and Development aggregations of Lafayette hooked horns Tuesday night, and when the dust had cleared—no one had won. The game reached the sixth inning with the score tied 2-2, and fast-closing darkness forced a halt.

In Minor League play Tuesday, July 17, Sun Valley Lumber outlasted Sports and Games 13-12. The next night found Rett-White edging Gaston's, 2-1.

On Thursday of last week it was Lafayette Pharmacy 7, Lafayette Rental, 5.

Lafayette Furniture waxed Jacuzzi 11-1 last Friday to close the week's play.

As competition was resumed Monday, Lafayette Rental bowled over Rett-White, 14-4.

Following are the standings in the Minor Leagues through Monday:

	W	L	Pct.
Kings	6	1	.857
Lafayette Pharmacy	4	3	.571
Sun Valley Lumber	3	3	.500
Sports and Games	3	3	.500
Lafayette Rental	3	3	.500
Rett-White	3	4	.423
Gaston's Cleaners	2	4	.333
Lincoln Development	2	4	.333
Lafayette Furniture	2	4	.333

Schedule of play in the leagues for the coming week is as follows:

MAJORS

Tonight—Jacuzzi vs. Sports and Games
Monday—Sports and Games vs. Lafayette Rental
Tuesday—Lincoln Development vs. Gaston's
Wednesday—Kings vs. Lafayette Furniture
Thursday—Jacuzzi vs. Sun Valley Lumber

MINORS

Tonight—Sports and Games vs. Gaston's
Monday—Gaston's vs. Sun Valley Lumber
Tuesday—Lafayette Pharmacy vs. Jacuzzi
Wednesday—Rett-White vs. Lincoln Development
Thursday—Lafayette Furniture vs. Sports and Games
Friday—Lafayette Rental vs. Kings

Winners Listed At Horseman's Annual Show

DOLORES DOYAS won the grand entry award for best dressed cowgirl and Wm. S. Tidwell won best dressed cowboy.

Junior Trail Class was won by Donna Burton, Tom Sutton and Loretta Ford.

Winning team for relay race—time: 1:8.2, Eddie Gomez, Evert Burton, Bud Walters, Billy Martin, Diane Strickland.

Athletic League

Picks Commissioner

Hal Buffa has been elected commissioner of the Diablo Valley Athletic League, it was announced.

Buffa is now director of Athletics, East Campus, of the Contra Costa Junior College. He is a past president of the officials organization.

A TOWERING HEAVE tossed by Linda Simons was good enough for a first place in the javelin throw at the all-girl meet. She was one of more than 50 female tracksters who were competing not only for victories in this meet, but also for a possible shot at the Women's Olympic Trials August 25. Eleven events in all were completed during the afternoon. — Sun photo by Elizabeth vander Mark

"GOOD LUCK" is what these girls wished each other before they competed in the Western Women's Open Championship last Saturday at Acalanes High School. But Earline Brown of Los Angeles (left) and Marsha Cosgrove of Renton, Wash. (right) didn't really need luck to cop their events. Earline won the shot put, and Marsha smashed records in leading the field in the 50, 100 and 200-meter dashes.

Teenage Girls Sparkle at Acalanes in Women's Meet

Track stars at Acalanes High might have taken a few lessons in competition and athletic finesse Saturday from some of the girls who competed in track and field events on the school's field.

Two girls, one 16 and the other 17, showed the way to the more than 50 female competitors who participated in the second annual Western Women's Open Track and Field Championships.

Pamela Kurrell, 17-year-old student from San Francisco, and Marcia Cosgrove, 16-year-old sprinter from Renton, Wash., were top honor sharers.

Both teenagers walked off with three first-place medals, establishing or equaling new meet marks in each case.

A total of 13 records were set and another tied during the afternoon meet.

Many of the women who finished in the top four of the 11 events during the day will compete in the National AAU championships August 18 at Philadelphia.

The Olympic Tryouts will be held August 25 at Washington, D.C.

Included in the victories of the two young femmes, Pamela won the baseball throw, discus and javelin, with Marcia scoring victories in the 50-meter, 100-meter and 200-meter dashes.

Pamela's toss of 137 feet, 9 1/4 inches in the discus also brought about new Pacific Association, American and American Citizen's records.

The Southern Pacific Association claimed the team title with 50 points, with the 38 points tacked up by the Pacific Association good enough for second. The Pacific Northwest team was third with 18, followed by the Rocky Mountain club with nine and the Oklahoma team with five. The Central California Association failed to score.

Stella Walsh, former Berkeley star who competed in the 1932 and 1936 Olympics, took the broad jump with a leap of 16 feet, 4 1/4 inches.

ing to Jim Weaver, St. Mary's athletic director and basketball coach.

WEAVER WILL act as liaison between the school and the team, which will use the school's facilities until September 23.

As was the case last year, when the 49ers first came to Moraga, fans will be able to visit the field at any time of the day, and see how the professionals go about training for a season of National Football League play.

Visitors came from great distances to see the activities last year, according to Weaver.

SINCE THERE are no grandstands at the field, many of them brought their own improvised seats.

Coach of the 49ers, former All-American Frankie Albert, has promised that his club will show plenty of playing spirit and will give other Western Division teams a run for their money.

While at St. Mary's the team will use the senior dormitory for living quarters, and will have the field, locker rooms, training, movie and other rooms for instruction.

WHEN SCHOOL starts, intramural sports will be planned to avoid schedule conflicts.

Last year, a dinner was given for the team by a 49er Fan Club, and similar preparations have been discussed for this year.

This is the second year for the 49ers at St. Mary's, but the school was home for the Cleveland Browns in earlier seasons.

Night Stock Car Race Is Tomorrow

The first night-time stock car race in Contra Costa Speedway's history — a 200 lap event — will be staged tomorrow.

Promoter Gene Marsh recently signed contracts for the big race with Bob Barkimer of San Jose, Pacific Coast representative of the National Association of Stock Car Auto Racing.

Better than 30 entries are expected — with the majority of cars to be 1956 models, he said. Marsh has established a $3400 purse, an all-time high for the Contra Costa track near Walnut Creek.

A poll of the fans prompted Marsh to switch to a night race, he added. In the past all Contra Costa stock car races have been on Sunday afternoons.

"The days are too hot. Besides we've done so well with our Saturday night shows this season, there's no reason to change," Marsh said.

Time trials for the stock cars will be held at 7 p.m. the night of the race, with a probable 10 cars to be qualified for the 200-lapper.

A trophy dash is scheduled for 8:30, to precede the main event.

This will be the only stock car race at Contra Costa Speedway this season.

Gala Rummage Sale Date Set By Crest View

The Crest View Junior Woman's Club of Pleasant Hill has changed the date of its coming Rummage Sale. Originally scheduled for August 10 the date has been moved up to August 11th at the PG&E Building, Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

The sale will begin at 10 a.m. according to sale chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Lazzareschi. Proceeds will be used for the club's projects during the coming year.

Its main project is a Loan Closet of hospital and sickroom equipment which is loaned free of charge to anyone in the area who might need these articles. The club was able to purchase last year several hospital beds, wheel chairs and the like.

Assisting Mrs. Lazzareschi with the rummage sale will be Mrs. Alvin Chellev.

Jr. Museum News... Of 'Possums, Spiders, And Crawly Things!

By ANNE HOWARD

Another wonderful week of summer classes is past, bringing the Junior Museum all kinds of new experiences and activities.

Irv Metzgar conducted the older classes on a special field trip to Black Hawk Ranch at Diablo to study Indian life. There they learned about, and saw first hand, relics of our local Indian dwellers. . . . At the Walnut Creek School the younger classes took up the study of local plants, and their life processes.

Under the direction of their instructor Bill Gripp the children took to the fields and creekbanks surrounding the school, to collect as many different varieties of plant life as they could.

THEN WITH THE help of Mr. Gripp and assistants Larkie Barnes, Roger Stark and myself, they classified and pressed them. They were having a wonderful time, up to their elbows in flowers and leaves and prickly thistles!

Some of the budding botanists included Ron Clark, Patricia Danton, John Gillan, Tom Pelsor, John Fuerst, Kirk and Scott Adie, Jerry Boehrer, Ann Stumpf, Karen and Sharon Kozak, and Laurel Ann Ryker.

A new addition to the museum classes is Wim vanMastrigt, who has recently moved with his family from Ohio. Wim became interested in the program through his own way back home. . . .

IN THE ANIMAL world, something new and different happens every day at the Museum! All kinds of new residents were added to the lending zoo this week, bringing the new total up to 26! The interested youngsters can certainly see why white rats make such good laboratory specimens — there are new ones every time they come to class. . . .

Not to ignore the spider kingdom, even Momma black-widow spider produced young this week! The staff had been keeping her, together with egg nest, in a jar, just to see what would happen. And it did! Her 200 and some odd youngsters were quickly dispatched with DDT because they are one thing the lending zoo doesn't need. . . .

TO ANSWER QUESTIONS, comfort mothers and summon the doctor or the garbage man the Museum office now has a telephone. Anyone can call between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. at YE 5-2410. . . .

Next week the Junior Museum classes are going to try a new kind of class for the younger children. It's their turn for a field trip! All week assistant Jeanette Maddux has had her finger on a list and her ear to the telephone contacting mothers to drive each day combined classes to Tilden Park's Jewel Lake nature trail.

There Mr. Gripp and his assistants will walk with the children along the trail, pointing out all the wonderful things in the animal, insect, and bird kingdoms that can only be found by going out and looking. . . . This trip will combine many of the things that the youngsters have learned in their previous classes and will serve to relate the subjects.

Notice to mothers — don't forget that all the classes meet at 9 a.m. next week, and that each child should have a bag lunch if he needs it to last through the 1 p.m. return time.

THERE'S EXCITEMENT in the animal room! The baby possum which the Museum received last week from Sandy Lindsay, president of the organization, has learned to use its prehensile tail. That is, it can curl the hairless tail around, say a twig or a finger, and hang happily upside down. Out of the cage, this is the way many possums sleep!

As the museum program progresses each child enrolled is putting more and more thought and work into his own project. Chosen from a long list of possibilities, the projects will be exhibited at the first Science Fair, the closing event of the Museum activities.

The Fair will be held at the Walnut Creek School, under the direction of instructors Bill Gripp, Ferd Ruth and Irv Metzgar, and planned by Mesdames Harmon Howard, Alex Lindsay and Matt Connelly. There, the children will exhibit the results of their summer work, the projects will include collections, live animals, aquaria and lots of other things. . . . all the work of the Museum students.

The staff hopes to see many interested people attend the Fair, to be held August 11, and all the proceeds will go to build a permanent Junior Museum on the land recently acquired.

County Expenses are Too High Says Special Report

In spite of the fact that the county's assessed valuation has risen more than 300 per cent during the past five years, county budgeted expenditures have grown from $11,235,195 to an imposing $28,500,000 during the same period, or an increase of 254 per cent, according to a report by the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association.

Population increase within the county in this time has totaled only 17 per cent.

On the basis of disparity between the number of people to serve and spiraling county costs, the Board of Directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association today called upon the Board of Supervisors to effect a "sweeping review" of county service programs by a competent management consulting firm to determine if some deceleration of the sharp pyramiding of governmental costs could be made, it said.

Citing that private industry frequently has comprehensive reviews made of their operations when costs get out of line, the directors of the tax group declared, "Contra Costa County is a multi-million dollar operation and big business comparable with any industry in the county."

"As a major business it should apply many of the same organizational practices and controls practiced by business generally if the costs and services are to be brought in proper balance."

THIS PLAYFUL LITTLE fellow is just one of the many indoor "exhibits" which fascinate children attending the Diablo Junior Museum classes now being held at Walnut Creek and Contra Costa Junior College. The pretty Miss who has the 'possum by the tail is Anne Howard who writes the Junior Museum News for The Sun.

IT'S WET DOWN THERE, but it's also a lot of fun, and besides, these youngsters are learning a great deal about life in "Walnut Creek." If you want outdoor activities, field trips like this provide it in the Junior Museum program. Fishing for wild life in Walnut Creek are Mark Devlin, and Allen Miller with the strainer and coffee can, while Edwin Sanders and Allen Archer look on with interest.

Artists Hear Frame Talk

The Valley Art Center and the Diablo Art Ass'n combined forces to present to members and the public an interesting and educational treat, last week.

An exhibit of prints framed "right and wrong" was shown at the Center and Joseph Collins of San Francisco told about correct framing and hanging.

Miss Busby to Be Mrs. Regin In August

A young couple is currently looking forward to their August 25 wedding in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda.

Miss Michele Jean Busby will become Mrs. Earl Lester Regin Jr. at that time. The wedding will take place at 4:30 p.m. and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Busby, 1331 Martino Lane, Lafayette.

Michele will have as attendants her sister, Miss Mary Busby, and her fiancé's sister, Miss Patty Regin.

Edmund Forrest Anderson Jr. will stand with the bridegroom-elect as his best man, while ushers Dennis Busby and Neal Regin will see guests to their seats.

Dennis is Michele's brother and Neal is the brother of Earl.

To entertain for the duo August 11 are the Neal Regins and Rusty's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Zimmerman Hugus, who are here from St. Paul, Minn., and will spend the summer in Berkeley.

Sewer Bids Run too High

The directors of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District have voted to delay the awarding of a contract for sewers for local improvement district 34 (Minor Orinda).

The decision was reached by the directors when bids for the work ranged 20 per cent and more over the engineer's cost estimates.

Prodanovich, Inc., of Oakland, was the lowest bidder for the sewer project at $114,986.

Board members said that since the cost estimate of $90,682.50 was the one approved by property owners of the Minor Orinda District, an opportunity should be given to the property owners to decide whether or not to accept the bid.

About 75 home owners in the improvement district will be polled by post card and the board will announce its decision at the July 26 meeting.

Workshop Series to Begin For Jewish Women League

The first in a series of workshop programs will be held at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, August 1, at the Jewish Community Center, Lafayette, under the sponsorship of the League of Jewish Women.

Mrs. Hal Roth, workshop chairman, has announced that classes will be on hair styling, coloring and care and make-up and the proper use of cosmetics. Headed by Mrs. Adams, of the H. C. Capwell Company of Oakland, a team of hair stylists will demonstrate hair coloring, setting, and styling on two professional models, as well as on members of the League.

They will also show how to style and dress a child's hair. Mrs. Adrienne Esquibel, well-known hair-stylist of Walnut Creek, will show how to dress hair in the most becoming manner.

Individual advice will be given to everyone present at the classes. In addition to the class on the care and dressing of the hair, Mrs. Margaret Prenger, of Beauty Counsellors, Incorporated, will conduct classes in the proper use of cosmetics.

She will demonstrate on live models the use of make-up and cosmetics will be blended for each woman present.

Baby sitting service will be provided. Classes are scheduled to start at 1 p.m. and will last until 3:30 p.m. Members of the League of Jewish Women, and their friends are invited to bring paper bag lunches at 12:30.

Coffee and cake will be provided for dessert. A highly enlightening and interesting afternoon has been promised.

For additional information, call Mrs. Hal Roth, YE 5-0198.

Ad in The Sun

Brings the Dawn

It sometimes takes an unfortunate experience to make us see the light.

Mrs. Ken Bell, 2430 Larkey Lane, Walnut Creek, had such an experience recently in trying to sell a doughnut machine, but the dawn finally broke through after she advertised in The Sun and Sun Shopping News.
